

The German Jew

A Synthesis of Judaism and Western Civilization, 1730–1930

by H. I. Bach

Published for
THE LITTMAN LIBRARY
by
OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS
1984

CONTENTS

Foreword by Albert H. Friedlander	7
Preface	11
German Jews in the Middle Ages	17
Moses Mendelssohn	44
The Significance of the French Revolution for the Emancipation of Jews	73
Liberalism	92
Revolution and Reaction	106
Expansion and Secularization of Jewish Ideas	116
Nationalism and Anti-Semitism in the New German Empire	122
Jews at the End of the Nineteenth Century	136
Zionism	148
Into the Twentieth Century	160
The Synthesis of Western Judaism	169
Epilogue	244
Index	251