

Contingencies of Value

Alternative Perspectives
for Critical Theory

Barbara Herrnstein/Smith

Harvard University Press
Cambridge, Massachusetts, and London, England

Contents

- 1 Fixed Marks and Variable Constancies:
A Parable of Value 1
Evaluating Shakespeare's Sonnets 1
Critical Problematics 9
- 2 The Exile of Evaluation 17
Fact and Value in the Literary Academy 17
The Politics of Evaluative Criticism 24
An Alternative Project 28
- 3 Contingencies of Value 30
Contingency and Interdependence 30
Matters of Taste 36
Processes of Evaluation 42
The Dynamics of Endurance 47
- 4 Axiologic Logic 54
Hume's Natural Standard 55
Kant's Pure Judgments 64
Logical Tastes and The Other's Poison 72
Three Postaxiological Postscripts 77

Contents

5 Truth/Value 85

Judgment Typology and MacIntyre's Fall 85

Value without Truth-Value 94

Changing Places: Truth, Error, and Deconstruction 116

6 The Critiques of Utility 125

Humanism, Anti-Utilitarianism, and the Double Discourse of Value 125

Bataille's Expenditure 134

Endless (Ex)Change 144

7 Matters of Consequence 150

Critiques and Charges: The Objectivist Generation of "Relativism" 150

Quietism and the Active Relativist 156

Community, Solidarity, and the Pragmatist's Dilemma 166

Politics and Justification 173

Conceptual Tastes and Practical Consequences 180

Notes 187

Index 223