

CONTENTS

Preface	5
by J.R. Gass

I. PROCEEDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS

OPENING ADDRESS	9
by E. van Lennep, Secretary-General of the OECD

SOME LESSONS FROM THE DEBATES

A Sociologist's Viewpoint	13
by A.H. Hasley
An Economist's Viewpoint	28
by V. Halberstadt

THE DEBATES IN SESSION

1. The Challenges Facing Social Policy in the 1980s	33
2. The Relations Between the Economy and Social Policies	41
3. Equality and Efficiency	46
4. Changing Values and Preferences, Their Relevance for Policy in the 1980s	52
5. Work, Leisure and Employment	56
6. New Perspectives on Roles and Responsibilities	62
7. The Making and Changing of Social Policy in the 1980s	66

II. DEVELOPMENTS, PROBLEMS AND ISSUES

Papers Contributed to the Conference Sessions

1. THE CHALLENGES FACING SOCIAL POLICY IN THE 1980s
Issues for Discussion	73
by the OECD Secretariat
A View From the Entrepreneurs	84
by the Business and Industry Advisory Committee to the OECD
A View From the Trade Unions	87
by the Trade Union Advisory Committee to the OECD
2. RELATIONS BETWEEN THE ECONOMY AND SOCIAL POLICIES
New Paths for Socio-Economic Policy	94
by Maurice Peston
Economic Prospects and Some Implications for Social Policies Development	110
by Per Schreiner
The Economic Environment and Social Policy of the OECD Countries in the 1980s	119
by Berislav Šefer
3. EQUALITY AND EFFICIENCY
Equity, Efficiency, Social Justice and Redistribution	137
by Lester C. Thurow

4.	CHANGING VALUES AND PREFERENCES—THEIR RELEVANCE FOR POLICY
	The Welfare State: A Double Bind	151
	by Bernard Cazes
	Values, Power and Policies	166
	by Rudolf Klein
	The Changing Economic and Social Determinants for the Development of Future Social Policy	178
	by Ernst Eugen Veselsky
	Democratic Corporatism, Consensus and Social Policy: Reflections on Changing Values and the "Crisis" of the Welfare State	185
	by Harold L. Wilensky
5.	WORK, LEISURE AND EMPLOYMENT
	Work and Society in the 1980s	196
	by Yves Chaigneau
	Labour Market Developments and the Need for Broader Policy Horizons	212
	by Francesco Forte
6.	NEW PERSPECTIVES ON ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES
	Social Policy Making in the 1980s: Elements and Issues	227
	by A. Rodney Dobell
	Roles and Responsibilities in Social Policy	240
	by Nathan Glazer
	Breaking Out of the Traditional Social Policy Ghetto	255
	by Kjell Eide
	Social Policy in a Period of Decrement: A Perspective of Governments	260
	by Yehezkel Dror	