

Contents

List of Tables	xi
Glossary	xiii
Preface	xvii
Epigraph	xviii
1 Basic Moral Considerations	1
War and Non-War Uses of Nuclear Weapons, 1; Moral Interests and the National Interest, 2; Three Basic Moral Concepts, 3; The Principles of Just War, 9; Pacifism and Its Problems, 9; Nationalism, 11; Development of the Principles of the Just War, 13; Consequences Unforeseen and Undesired: The Assessment of Risk, 25; Summary, 27
2 Nuclear Weapons, Politics and Strategy: A Short History	30
The Dawn of the Nuclear Age, 30; The Atomic Bomb, 33; Development of the Cold War, 36; Missiles and the Big Bomb, 39; Brinksmanship: Nuclear Diplomacy and Missile Development 1953-1960, 44; Weapons, Strategies and Competition 1961-1972, 49; The Arms Race of the 1970s: Missile Accuracy and Warheads Proliferation, 62; Into the 1980s: Arms and Allies, 68; The Four Arms Races of the Nuclear Era, 69; Appendix: Four Strategic Races, 73
3 Present Risks and Plans for Nuclear War	74
The Nuclear Threshold, 74; Seven Ways Across the Nuclear Threshold, 75; Proliferation, 83; Summary: The Risk of Nuclear War in the Coming Decades, 84; The Effects of Thermonuclear Weapons, 85; Long-Term Effects of Nuclear War: Cancer and Nuclear Winter, 91; The End of the World?, 93;

- 4 A Short Tour of Strategic Weapons Policies 97
 Choice A: Possession or Non-Possession?, 98; Choice B: Tactical, Strategic, or Both?, 105; Choice C: Nuclear Aggression or Nuclear Defense?, 106; Choice D: First Use or No First Use?, 107; Choice E: Commitment or Bluff?, 108; Choice F: Counterforce, Countervalue, or Both?, 111; Choice G: Massive Retaliation or Flexible Response?, 114; Choice H: Strategic Defense or No Strategic Defense?, 115; Grand Strategies: Victory, Detente, Non-Possession, 119; Appendix: Characteristics of the Grand Strategies, 123
- 5 Weapons Policies and the Common Good 124
 A World-Wide Poll?, 124; The Minimax Rule, 125; The Disaster Avoidance Principle, 126; Maximizing Expected Value and Minimizing Expected Deaths, 128; Estimates and Sensitivity to Error, 134; Other Factors Relevant to the Common Good, 138; Strategic and Moral Implications of Nuclear Winter, 142; Appendix: Expected Deaths and the National Interest, 144
- 6 Weapons Policies and Human Rights 148
 Killing the Innocent, 148; Victory and Commitments to Killing the Innocent, 150; Detente and the Infliction of Risk, 152; Arguments That the Risk Is Permissible, 153; One Argument That the Risk Is Not Permissible, 162; Summary of the Argument Thus Far, 171; Human Rights and Wartime Uses of Nuclear Weapons, 172; Connection Between War Uses and Deterrent Uses of Nuclear Weapons: The Paradox of Deterrence, 175
- 7 Weapons Policies and the Concept of Justice 179
 Justice, Fairness, and Consistency, 179; Is Unilateral Nuclear Disarmament Unfair?, 179; Possession and Fairness, 180; Consistency: Victory and Detente, 180; The Veil of Ignorance Test, 182; Moral Consistency and Force Deployments, 184; Justice and Risks to the Third World, 187; The Unresolved Problem of Compensatory Justice, 188; Nuclear Risks and Future Generations, 189
- 8 Weapons Policies and the Laws of War 193
 The Just War Theory, 193; Right Authority, 193; Right Cause, 196; Right Intention, 198; Necessity, 199; Chance of Victory, 200; Discrimination, 201; Proportionality, 204; Christian Judgments: Paul Ramsey on Nuclear War, 205; Christian Judgments: The

Catholic Church on Nuclear War, 207; The Legality of Nuclear Weapons: Possession, 210; The Legality of Nuclear Weapons: Use, 212; Nuclear Reprisals, 216

- 9 Steps Toward Disarmament 219
 The Role of Moral Criticism, 219; From Victory to Detente, 220; Objections to the Switch to Detente, 224; Detente-Plus-City-Avoidance, 227; From Detente to Non-Possession, 229; Internationalization of Nuclear Weapons, 230; New Steps Towards Internationalization, 232; Moral Aspects of the Internationalization of Nuclear Weapons, 234; Conventional Weapons in a Post-Nuclear World, 235; Fear of Disarmament: Reflections of the Cult of Strength, 236

Index 259