

Vocation across the Academy

A New Vocabulary for Higher Education

Edited by
DAVID S. CUNNINGHAM

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

Foreword —RICHARD EKMAN	ix
Preface	xiii
Vocations of the Contributors	xvii

Introduction

Language that Works: Vocation and the Complexity of Higher Education—DAVID S. CUNNINGHAM	1
--	---

PART ONE: Calling without Borders: Vocational Themes across the Academy

1. “Vocation Is Responsibility”: Broader Scope, Deeper Discernment—MARGARET E. MOHRMANN	21
2. The Conflicts in Our Callings: The Anguish (and Joy) of Willing Several Things—JASON A. MAHN	44
3. Called to Tell Our Stories: The Narrative Structure of Vocation—SHIRLEY HERSHEY SHOWALTER	67

PART TWO: Calling in Context: Fields of Study as Resources for Vocational Reflection

4. Calling over the Life Course: Sociological Insights —CATHERINE FOBES	91
--	----

5. To Whom Do I Sing, and Why? Vocation as an Alternative to Self-Expression—DAVID FUENTES 111
6. Coordination, Community, Covenant: Insights from Organization Theory—MICHAEL E. CAFFERKY 133
7. The Art and Science of Vocation: Wisdom and Conscience as Companions on a Way—CELIA DEANE-DRUMMOND 156

PART THREE: *Called into the Future:
Professional Fields and Preparation for Life*

8. Laboring in the Garden: Vocation and the Realities of Work—CHRISTINE M. FLETCHER 183
9. Unplugging the GPS: Rethinking Undergraduate Professional Degree Programs—JEFF R. BROWN 204
10. Of Doing and Being: Broadening Our Understanding of Vocation—JEROME M. ORGAN 225

PART FOUR: *Vocation at Full Stretch:
Overcoming Institutional Obstacles to the Language of Call*

11. Colleges Have Callings, Too: Vocational Reflection at the Institutional Level—DAVID S. CUNNINGHAM 249
12. Religion, Reluctance, and Conversations about Vocation—MARK U. EDWARDS JR. 272
13. Good Teaching: Character Formation and Vocational Discernment—MARK R. SCHWEHN 294
- Epilogue
Vocabularies of Vocation: Language for a Complex Educational Landscape—DAVID S. CUNNINGHAM 315
- Index of Names* 327
- Index of Subjects* 335