

Gabriele Rosenthal (Ed.)

Established and Outsiders
at the Same Time

Self-Images and We-Images of Palestinians in the West Bank and in Israel

Volume 8

Göttingen Series in Social and Cultural Anthropology

Göttingen University Press
2016

Contents

Preface 7

1 Introduction 9

Gabriele Rosenthal

Voices from the West Bank

2 We-images and collective memories in the West Bank 17

Gabriele Rosenthal

3 On the brittleness of the homogenizing we-discourse:
Christians in Bethlehem and Ramallah 31

Hendrik Hinrichsen, Johannes Becker, Gabriele Rosenthal

4 The homogenizing we-discourse and the social positioning of the refugee camps 45

Arne Worm, Hendrik Hinrichsen, Ahmed Albaba

5 The way outsiders speak: Counter discourses, self- and we-images of stigmatized gay men in the West Bank 67

Arne Worm, Hendrik Hinrichsen

6 Voices of former political prisoners and their families in the West Bank .. 87

Gabriele Rosenthal, Ahmed Albaba

Voices from East Jerusalem

- 7 Palestinians in East Jerusalem 111
Johannes Becker, Arne Worm
- 8 Commitment to the Old City and ambivalent emplacement 125
Johannes Becker

Voices from Israel

- 9 Palestinians in Israel 149
Nicole Witte
- 10 Palestinian voices from Haifa 159
Nicole Witte
- 11 Being Palestinian in Jaffa: How Druze and Bedouin Israeli women talk about we-images and belonging 181
Rixta Wundrak

- Glossary 203
- Transcription symbols 213
- About the authors 215
- Bibliography 217