

Jewish Migration and the Archive

Edited by

James Jordan, Lisa Leff and Joachim Schlör

Contents

Citation Information	vii
Notes on Contributors	ix
1. Jewish Migration and the Archive: Introduction James Jordan, Lisa Leff and Joachim Schlör	1
2. Reading between the lines: artistic approaches to the family archive Katy Beinart	6
3. ‘Personal letters – to keep’: managing the emotions of forced migration Esther Saraga	27
4. Smell and memory as Jewish archives: the case of Russian Jewish writers Henrietta Mondry	43
5. Heritage centres in Israel: Depositories of a lost identity? Hilda Nissimi	55
6. Means of transport and storage: suitcases and other containers for the memory of migration and displacement Joachim Schlör	76
7. Private archives and public lives: the migrations of Alexander Weissberg and the Polanyi archives Judith Szapor	93
8. The making of a South African Jewish activist: the Yiddish diary of Ray Alexander Simons, Latvia, 1927 Veronica Belling	110
9. Harvard man, American dough boy, Mississippi Jew: the papers of Samuel (Sam) Leyens Switzer in Virginia Maura Hametz	124
Index	141