

Contents

Preface	vii
1. Introducing Beth Ann	1
How will Beth Ann fare in life?	2
Now that Beth Ann is 4 years old	3
What can Beth Ann understand?	3
Similarity thinking	8
Summary	11
2. Determining a Child's Readiness for Kindergarten	13
Performance analysis	13
Kindergarten preparation	24
3. Getting to Know the Child at Home	27
Introducing Andy	27
The key is familiarity	33
Learning to deal with the novel	35
4. Two Seven-Year Olds Talk about Rain	37
Georgia and Herbert talk about rain	37
Listening to children's thinking	42
Exercising similarity thinking	43
Crisis of confidence	46
Rebuilding confidence by emphasizing the child's personal best	49
5. Teachers Can Help Children Organize Their Thinking to Plan ahead	53
Similarity thinking, planning and instruction	53
Questioning techniques, similarity thinking and planning	54
When things go wrong in planning	58
Josie	59

Organizing thinking to plan ahead	61
A developmental view of overview thinking and planning .	62
Summary	65
6. The Assessment of Similarity Thinking: A Case Study . . .	67
Introducing Richard	68
The assessment of similarity thinking	69
Summing up Richard's assessment	89
7. Therapy for the "Sane" Child	91
Crisis of confidence revisited	97
Erikson's theory of psychosocial development	98
The security theory of William Blatz	101
Erikson, Blatz and therapy for the sane child	105
8. The Frustration of Meeting the Individual Needs of Students	111
Teachers discuss the frustration of meeting the individual needs of children	113
Responding to individual needs	117
Networking at school and in the community	120
References	123
Appendix	125
Author Index	129
Subject Index	131