

ROBERT MORRIS

by Michael Compton and David Sylvester

THE TATE GALLERY 28 April—6 June 1971

Contents

- page 5 Preface Sir Norman Reid
- 7 Biographical summary Michael Compton
- 8 A method for sorting cows Robert Morris
- 10 Box with the sound of its own making David Sylvester
- 13 A duologue Robert Morris and David Sylvester
- Introductory notes to the plates Michael Compton
- 22 Section I: Grey polyhedrons
- 50 Section II: Lead reliefs and mixed media
- 68 Section III: Permutations
- 84 Section IV: Various metals and resins
- 104 Section V: Felts
- 114 Section VI: Process pieces

A broadsheet, which includes a catalogue of works exhibited and illustrations of those made in situ, is contained in a wallet inside the back cover.

Throughout this publication dimensions are given in inches in the order: height, width, depth.

Unless otherwise stated all works are in the possession of the artist or of his agents, Leo Castelli Gallery and Galerie Ileana Sonnabend.