

Available with LaunchPad

Fourth Edition

THE FILM EXPERIENCE

An Introduction

TIMOTHY CORRIGAN
PATRICIA WHITE

Contents

Preface v

PART 1

CULTURAL CONTEXTS: watching, studying, and making movies 2

INTRODUCTION Studying Film: Culture and Experience 5

Why Film Studies Matters 7

Film Spectators and Film Cultures 9

© FORM IN ACTION: Identification, Cognition, and Film Variety 13

© FILM IN FOCUS: The 400 Blows: An Auteur's Film Experience
(1959) 14

The Film Experience 16

CHAPTER 1 Encountering Film: From Preproduction to Exhibition 19

Production: How Films Are Made 21

Preproduction 21

Production 26

Postproduction 28

Distribution: What We Can See 29

Distributors 30

Ancillary Markets 34

Distribution Timing 37

© FILM IN FOCUS: Distributing Killer of Sheep (1977) 40

Marketing and Promotion: What We Want to See 42

Generating Interest 43

Advertising 45

© FORM IN ACTION: The Changing Art and Business of the Film Trailer 47

© VIEWING CUE: Man of Steel (2013) 48

Word of Mouth and Fan Engagement 49

Movie Exhibition: The Where, When, and How of Movie Experiences 51

The Changing Contexts and Practices of Film Exhibition 51

© FILM IN FOCUS: Promoting The Blair Witch Project (1999) 52

Technologies and Cultures of Exhibition 54

The Timing of Exhibition 55

© FILM IN FOCUS: Exhibiting Citizen Kane (1941) 56

PART 2

FORMAL COMPOSITIONS: film scenes, shots, cuts, and sounds 60

CHAPTER 2 Mise-en-Scène: Exploring a Material World 63

A Short History of Mise-en-Scène 66

- Theatrical Mise-en-Scène and the Prehistory of Cinema 66
- 1900–1912: Early Cinema’s Theatrical Influences 67
- 1915–1928: Silent Cinema and the Star System 67
- 1930s–1960s: Studio-Era Production 68
- 1940–1970: New Cinematic Realism 68
- 1975–Present: Mise-en-Scène and the Blockbuster 68

The Elements of Mise-en-Scène 69

Settings and Sets 69

- © VIEWING CUE: Life of Pi (2012) 70
 Scenic Realism and Atmosphere 70
 Props, Actors, Costumes, and Lights 71
- © FILM IN FOCUS: Mise-en-Scène in Do the Right Thing (1989) 80
 Space and Design 84
- © FORM IN ACTION: Mise-en-Scène in Fantastic Mr. Fox (2009) 85
Making Sense of Mise-en-Scène 86
 Defining Our Place in a Film’s Material World 86
 Interpretive Contexts for Mise-en-Scène 87
- © FILM IN FOCUS: Naturalistic Mise-en-Scène in Bicycle Thieves (1948) 90
 Spectacularizing the Movies 92

CHAPTER 3 Cinematography: Framing What We See 95

A Short History of the Cinematic Image 97

- 1820s–1880s: The Invention of Photography and the Prehistory of Cinema 98
- 1890s–1920s: The Emergence and Refinement of Cinematography 98
- 1930s–1940s: Developments in Color, Wide-Angle, and Small-Gauge Cinematography 100
- 1950s–1960s: Widescreen, 3-D, and New Color Processes 102
- 1970s–1980s: Cinematography and Exhibition in the Age of the Blockbuster 102
- 1990s and Beyond: The Digital Future 103

The Elements of Cinematography 104

- Points of View 104
- Four Attributes of the Shot 106

- © VIEWING CUE: Touch of Evil (1958) 106

- ☐ FORM IN ACTION: Color and Contrast in Film 116
- ☐ VIEWING CUE: Rear Window (1954) 118
- ☐ VIEWING CUE: The Battle of Algiers (1967) 119
 - Animation and Visual Effects 119
- Making Sense of the Film Image 122
 - Defining Our Relationship to the Cinematic Image 122
 - Interpretive Contexts for the Cinematic Image 123
- ☐ FILM IN FOCUS: From Angles to Animation in Vertigo (1958) 124
- ☐ FILM IN FOCUS: Meaning through Images in M (1931) 128

CHAPTER 4 Editing: Relating Images 133

- A Short History of Film Editing 134
 - 1895–1918: Early Cinema and the Emergence of Editing 135
 - 1919–1929: Soviet Montage 137
 - 1930–1959: Continuity Editing in the Hollywood Studio Era 138
 - 1960–1989: Modern Editing Styles 139
 - 1990s–Present: Editing in the Digital Age 140
- The Elements of Editing 140
 - The Cut and Other Transitions 141
- ☐ VIEWING CUE: Chinatown (1974) 143
 - Continuity Style 144
 - Editing and Temporality 155
- ☐ VIEWING CUE: The General (1927) 159
- ☐ FORM IN ACTION: Editing and Rhythm in Moulin Rouge! (2001) 160
 - Making Sense of Film Editing 161
- ☐ FILM IN FOCUS: Patterns of Editing in Bonnie and Clyde (1967) 162
 - Disjunctive Editing 165
 - Converging Editing Styles 169
- ☐ FILM IN FOCUS: Montage in Battleship Potemkin (1925) 170

CHAPTER 5 Film Sound: Listening to the Cinema 175

- A Short History of Film Sound 176
 - Theatrical and Technological Prehistories of Film Sound 177
 - 1895–1920s: The Sounds of Silent Cinema 177
 - 1927–1930: Transition to Synchronized Sound 179
 - 1930s–1940s: Challenges and Innovations in Cinema Sound 180
 - 1950s–Present: From Stereophonic to Digital Sound 180
- The Elements of Film Sound 181
 - Sound and Image 181
 - Sound Production 184
- ☐ FILM IN FOCUS: Sound and Image in Singin' in the Rain (1952) 186
 - Voice in Film 189
 - Music in Film 193
- ☐ FORM IN ACTION: Pop Music Soundtracks in Contemporary Cinema 195
 - Sound Effects in Film 199

- © VIEWING CUE: Winter's Bone (2010) 199
- © VIEWING CUE: The Thin Red Line (1998) 200
- Making Sense of Film Sound 201
 - Authenticity and Experience 201
 - Sound Continuity and Sound Montage 202
- © FILM IN FOCUS: The Role of Sound and Sound Technology in The Conversation (1974) 206

PART 3

ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURES: from stories to genres 210

CHAPTER 6 Narrative Films: Telling Stories 213

- A Short History of Narrative Film 214
 - 1900–1920s: Adaptations, Scriptwriters, and Screenplays 216
 - 1927–1950: Sound Technology, Dialogue, and Classical Hollywood Narrative 217
 - 1950–1980: Art Cinema 219
 - 1980s–Present: From Narrative Reflexivity to Games 219
- The Elements of Narrative Film 220
 - Stories and Plots 220
 - Characters 222
 - Diegetic and Nondiegetic Elements 229
 - Narrative Patterns of Time 230
- FORM IN ACTION: Nondiegetic Images and Narrative 231
- © VIEWING CUE: Shutter Island (2010) 234
 - Narrative Space 236
 - Narrative Perspectives 238
- © VIEWING CUE: The Royal Tenenbaums (2001) 238
- © FILM IN FOCUS: Plot and Narration in Apocalypse Now (1979) 240
- Making Sense of Film Narrative 243
 - Shaping Memory, Making History 244
 - Narrative Traditions 245
- © FILM IN FOCUS: Classical and Alternative Traditions in Mildred Pierce (1945) and Daughters of the Dust (1991) 248

CHAPTER 7 Documentary Films: Representing the Real 253

- A Short History of Documentary Cinema 256
 - A Prehistory of Documentaries 256
 - 1895–1905: Early Actualities, Scenics, and Topicals 257
 - The 1920s: Robert Flaherty and the Soviet Documentaries 257
 - 1930–1945: The Politics and Propaganda of Documentary 258

- 1950s–1970s: New Technologies and the Arrival of Television 258
- 1980s–Present: Digital Cinema, Cable, and Reality TV 260

The Elements of Documentary Films 261

- Nonfiction and Non-Narrative 261
- Expositions: Organizations That Show or Describe 263
- © FILM IN FOCUS: Nonfiction and Non-Narrative in Man of Aran (1934) 264
- © VIEWING CUE: The Cove (2009) 265
Rhetorical Positions 266
- Making Sense of Documentary Films 269
 - Revealing New or Ignored Realities 270
 - Confronting Assumptions, Altering Opinions 270
 - Serving as a Social, Cultural, and Personal Lens 271
- © FILM IN FOCUS: Stories We Tell (2012) 272
- © FORM IN ACTION: The Contemporary Documentary: Exit Through the Gift Shop (2010) 280

CHAPTER 8 Experimental Film and New Media: Challenging Form 283

A Short History of Experimental Film and Media Practices 286

- 1910s–1920s: European Avant-Garde Movements 287
- 1930s–1940s: Sound and Vision 288
- 1950s–1960s: The Postwar Avant-Garde in America 289
- © FILM IN FOCUS: Avant-Garde Visions in Meshes of the Afternoon (1943) 290
 - 1968–1980: Politics and Experimental Cinema 293
 - 1980s–Present: New Technologies and New Media 294
- Variations of Experimental Media 295
 - Formalisms: Narrative Experimentation and Abstraction 295
 - Experimental Organizations: Associative, Structural, and Participatory 296
- © FILM IN FOCUS: Formal Play in Ballet mécanique (1924) 298
- Making Sense of Experimental Media 301
 - Challenging and Expanding Perception 302
 - Experimental Film Styles and Approaches 302
- © VIEWING CUE: Gently Down the Stream (1964) 303
- © FORM IN ACTION: Lyrical Style in Bridges-Go-Round (1958) 306

CHAPTER 9 Movie Genres: Conventions, Formulas, and Audience Expectations 311

A Short History of Film Genre 313

- Historical Origins of Genres 313
- Early Film Genres 314
- 1920s–1940s: Genre and the Studio System 314

- 1948–1970s: Postwar Film Genres 315
- 1970s–Present: New Hollywood, Sequels, and Global Genres 316

The Elements of Film Genre 317

- Conventions 317
- Formulas and Myths 318
- Audience Expectations 319

Six Movie Genres 320

- Comedies 321
- Westerns 324
- Melodramas 326
- Musicals 329
- Horror Films 332
- Crime Films 334

VIEWING CUE: The Searchers (1956) 337

Making Sense of Film Genres 338

- Prescriptive and Descriptive Approaches 338
- Classical and Revisionist Traditions 339

FILM IN FOCUS: Crime Film Conventions and Formulas: Chinatown (1974) 340

FORM IN ACTION: Genre Revisionism: Comparing True Grit (1969) and True Grit (2010) 343

- Local and Global Genres 344

FILM IN FOCUS: Genre History in Vagabond (1985) 346

PART 4

CRITICAL PERSPECTIVES: history, methods, writing 350

CHAPTER 10 History and Historiography: Hollywood and Beyond 353

Early Cinema 355

Cinema between the Wars 356

- Classical Hollywood Cinema 356
- German Expressionist Cinema 358
- Soviet Silent Films 359
- French Impressionist Cinema and Poetic Realism 360

Postwar Cinemas 361

- Postwar Hollywood 361
- Italian Neorealism 363

VIEWING CUE: Gilda (1946) and Rome, Open City (1945) 364

- French New Wave 364
- Japanese Cinema 365
- Third Cinema 366

Contemporary Film Cultures 366

- Contemporary Hollywood 367
- Contemporary Independent Cinema 368
- Contemporary European Cinema 369

- © FILM IN FOCUS: Taxi Driver and New Hollywood (1976) 370
 - Indian Cinema 373
 - African Cinema 374
 - Chinese Cinema 375
 - Iranian Cinema 377
- The Lost and Found of Film History 378
 - Women Filmmakers 379
 - African American Cinema 382
 - Lesbian/Gay/Bisexual/Transgender (LGBT) Film History 385
- © FILM IN FOCUS: Lost and Found History: Within Our Gates (1920) 386
 - Indigenous Media 390
 - Excavating Film History 392

CHAPTER 11 Reading about Film: Critical Theories and Methods 397

- The Evolution of Film Theory 399
 - Early and Classical Film Theory 400
 - Early Film Theory 400
 - Classical Film Theories: Formalism and Realism 402
 - Postwar Film Culture and Criticism 405
 - Film Journals 405
 - Auteur Theory 406
 - Genre Theory 407
 - Contemporary Film Theory 408
 - Structuralism and Semiotics 408
- © VIEWING CUE: The Wizard of Oz (1939) 409
 - Poststructuralism 411
- © FILM IN FOCUS: Signs and Meaning in Persepolis (2007) 412
 - Theories of Gender and Sexuality 415
 - Cultural Studies 418
 - Film and Philosophy 422
 - Postmodernism and New Media 423
- © FILM IN FOCUS: Clueless about Contemporary Film Theory? (1995) 424

CHAPTER 12 Writing a Film Essay: Observations, Arguments, Research, and Analysis 429

- Writing an Analytical Film Essay 431
 - Personal Opinion and Objectivity 431
- © VIEWING CUE: Moonrise Kingdom (2012) 432
 - Identifying Your Readers 432
 - Elements of the Analytical Film Essay 433
- Preparing to Write about a Film 434
 - Asking Questions 435
 - Taking Notes 435

Selecting a Topic 437

🎬 FILM IN FOCUS: Analysis, Audience, and Minority Report (2002) 438

Elements of a Film Essay 441

Thesis Statement 442

Outline and Topic Sentences 443

Revising, Formatting, and Proofreading 444

Writer's Checklist 445

Researching the Movies 445

Distinguishing Research Materials 446

🎬 FILM IN FOCUS: Interpretation, Argument, and Evidence in Rashomon (1950) 448

Using and Documenting Sources 453

🎬 FILM IN FOCUS: From Research to Writing about The Cabinet of Dr. Caligari (1920) 456

Glossary 462

The Next Level: Additional Sources 477

Index 483