

The Art and Craft of International Environmental Law

DANIEL BODANSKY

Harvard University Press
Cambridge, Massachusetts London, England

Contents

Preface ix

Abbreviations xii

- 1 What Is International Environmental Law? 1
- 2 How We Got Here: A Brief History 18
- 3 Diagnosing the Causes of Environmental Problems 37
- 4 Prescribing the Cure: Environmental Policy 101 57
- 5 Varieties of Environmental Norms 86
- 6 Who's Who in the Legal Process 108
- 7 Overcoming Obstacles to International Cooperation 136
- 8 Negotiating Agreements 154
- 9 Customary (and Not So Customary) Norms 191
- 10 How and Why Do States Implement Their Commitments? 205
- 11 International Carrots and Sticks 225

12	Is International Environmental Law Effective?	252
	Conclusion: Taking Stock	267
	Notes	273
	Treaties and Other Instruments	341
	International Cases	346
	Acknowledgments	348
	Index	351