

THE MONOLOGIC IMAGINATION

---

Edited by Matt Tomlinson and Julian Millie

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	vii
Contributors	ix
Introduction: Imagining the Monologic	1
MATT TOMLINSON
1. Cultural Replication: The Source of Monological and Dialogical Models of Culture	19
GREG URBAN
2. Dialogic Prophecies and Monologic Vision	47
JON BIALECKI
3. Monologue and Dialogism in Highland New Guinea Verbal Art	59
ALAN RUMSEY
Discussion: Is It Monologic? Is It Dialogic? What Difference Does It Make?	81
DON KULICK
4. "With Unity We Will Be Victorious!": A Monologic Poetics of Political "Conscientization" within the Cuban Revolution	89
KRISTINA WIRTZ
5. From Neighborhood Talk to Talking for the Neighborhood	121
ZANE GOEBEL

6. Monologue and Authority in Iran: Ethnic and Religious Heteroglossia in the Islamic Republic	143
JAMES BARRY
Discussion: Diving into the Gap: "Words," "Voices," and the Ethnographic Implications of Linguistic Disjuncture	159
KRISTA E. VAN VLEET
7. Acting with One Voice: Producing Unanimism in Algerian Reformist Theater	171
JANE E. GOODMAN
8. Creedal Monologism and Theological Articulation in the Mennonite Central Committee	203
PHILIP FOUNTAIN
9. The Public Metaculture of Islamic Preaching	231
JULIAN MILLIE
Discussion: The Monologic Imagination of Social Groups	251
COURTNEY HANDMAN
Conclusion: Religious and Political Terrain of the Monologic Imagination	259
MATT TOMLINSON AND JULIAN MILLIE
Index	269