

EXPECTING THE EARTH

Life, Culture, Biosemiotics

Wendy Wheeler

Lawrence & Wishart
London 2016

Contents

Acknowledgements	ix
Introduction: The Turning	1
I A Well-tuned Symphony of Flesh, Sign and World	2
II Semiosis, Not Information	5
III Book Structure	14
1. Biosemiotics: Towards an Ecological Ontology of Sign Relations	26
I 'Between Times': Philosophical Precursors, Deleuze and Guattari	26
II Meaning in Information: Towards the Age of Systems and Semiosis	59
III Meaning in Biology: Towards Biosemiotics	70
2. The Wrecked Vessel and Earth Repudiation: Gnosticism, Nominalism and the Semiotic Scaffolding of Modern Scientific Consciousness	82
I The Poetics of Biosemiotics	82
II The Effects of the Megamachine	89
III Earth-Hatred: Modernity, Gnostic Nihilism and Relationless Objects	98
IV The Religious Roots of Modern Science and the 'Dropped Stitch' of Biosemiosis	103
3. The Lightest Burden: The Aesthetic Abductions of Biosemiotics	113
I Biosemiotics as the Bridge between Nature and Culture	113
II Abduction: The Carrying and Growing of Meaning	125
III Nature the Tinkerer	135
IV Intelligent Nature: Biosemiosis as Natural Poetry	140
V The Lightest Burden: Abducting the Pool of Yourself	143

4. A Feeling for Life: Natural and Cultural Ecologies and the Orders of Discourse	147
I A Biosemiotic Theory of Reading: Roman Jakobson and the Developmental Model	147
II Jakobson and Process: From Biology to Structure to Structuration	153
III Evolution and Semiotics: Some Misunderstandings	158
IV Biology, Linguistics and Semiotics: Roman Jakobson and Claude Lévi-Strauss	166
V Eco-structuration: Neither Structuralism nor Poststructuralism but Structuration and Growth	169
VI An Ecology of Meanings: Semiotic Realism in the Flesh and the Word	172
VII Peirce, Derrida and Poststructuralism	175
VIII The Artwork as Organism	177
5. A Connoisseur of Magical Coincidences: Chance, Creativity and Poesis from a Biosemiotic Perspective	184
I Imaginative Mind and the Janus God	185
II Reaching into the Depths of the Sign Poetically	189
III What Are Poets For? The Thought Fox	195
IV A Connoisseur of Magical Coincidence	198
6. Expecting the Earth: A New Animism, the Symbiosesemiotic Technological Object and Gilbert Simondon	204
I Humans	204
II Becoming Human	211
III Becoming Technological, Surpassing Expectations	215
IV First and Later Conjurings	220
V Chance, Metaphor and Nonconscious Knowing: A Guess at the Riddle	224
VI Three Cosmologies: Biosemiotics, Animistic Semiotic Naturalism, Gilbert Simondon	238
Bibliography	247
Index	267