

CRISTINA ACIDINI LUCHINAT

Michelangelo

sculptor

Photographs by Aurelio Amendola

24 ORE Cultura

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- 6 Introduction
- 13 The very young sculptor
The beginnings
The Head of a Faun
The Madonna of the Stairs
The Battle of the Centaurs
Some thoughts on his education
- 27 From the death of the Magnifico to departure for Rome
A period of uncertainty
The Hercules
The wooden Crucifix in Santo Spirito
Other wooden crucifixes: suggestions for attribution
From snowfall to flight
In Bologna
The Angel Holding a Candlestick
The Saint Petronius
The Saint Proculus
A Sleeping Cupid "all'antica"
- 49 The first masterpieces in Rome
The Bacchus
The Young Archer
The Vatican Pietà
- 69 The *David
The block of marble
From the project to the finished work
Placing the statue in the city
Iconographic issues
Half a millennium of fame
- 85 Sculptures and contracts in Florence
The commission for the Piccolomini chapel
The bronze David
The Four Saints for the Piccolomini chapel
The Florentine Tondi
The Pitti Tondo
The Taddei Tondo
The Bruges Madonna
The contract for twelve Apostles for the Florence Cathedral
- 107 From Julius II to Leo X
The Tomb of Julius II, the beginning of the "tragedy"
In the marble quarries, from spring to autumn 1506
The dispute with the pope and return to Florence
The Saint Matthew
Michelangelo and the Laocoön
Reconciliation with Julius II in Bologna
The Sistine Chapel ceiling
Leo X and the second contract for the Tomb (1513)
The Dying Slave
The Rebellious Slave
The Moses
The chapel in Castel Sant'Angelo
The Risen Christ (the "first Minerva Christ")
Between Florence, Carrara and Pietrasanta for the façade of San Lorenzo
- 149 The tombs of the Medici at San Lorenzo
The initial stages of the project
Genesis of the Medici tombs
The materials
The architecture
Tombs for leaders and dukes
The tomb of Giuliano, Duke of Nemours
The tomb of Lorenzo, Duke of Urbino
The tomb of the "Magnifici"
Other materials for the Sacristy
The Sacristy: from abandonment to completion
The iconographic programme
The success of the Sacristy: descriptions and derivations
- 199 Between the Florentine Republic and the Rome of Clement VII
The republican hiatus
The Risen Christ (the Minerva Christ)
The "kneeling" windows for the Palazzo Medici
The Tribune of the Reliquaries in San Lorenzo
The Medicean Laurentian Library
Fantasy for a colossal statue of Clement VII
The Apollo/David
The four Florentine Captives
The Young Captive
The Bearded Captive
The so-called Atlas
The Awakening Captive
The Victory
The room in Via Mozza
Back to Rome
Michelangelo's artistic legacy in Florence
- 239 The final thirty years
The Last Judgement
Michelangelo, Florence, the Florentines
The glorification of Michelangelo during his lifetime
The Brutus bust
The Tomb of Julius II towards completion
The Contemplative Life or Rachel, the Active Life or Leah
Julius II Della Rovere
Restoration of the Tomb
The Pauline Chapel
The project for the tomb of Cecchino Bracci
The architect of popes, from Paul III to Pius IV
The Florentine Pietà
The Palestrina Pietà, an attribution now rejected
The Rondanini Pietà
The small wooden Christ
The myth of Michelangelo
- 299 Entries
- 309 Appendix
Bibliography
Index of names