

INVISIBLE WEAPONS

Liturgy and the Making of Crusade Ideology

M. Cecilia Gaposchkin

Cornell University Press

ITHACA AND LONDON

Contents

List of Illustrations and Maps xi
Acknowledgments xiii
Abbreviations and Citation Conventions xvii

Introduction I

Crusading and the Liturgy 4
Premises and Parameters 7
Plan of Inquiry 12

Preliminaries 16

Crusading to the Levant, 1095-1500 16
The Liturgy and Its Books 22

1 The Militant Eschatology of the Liturgy and the Origins of Crusade Ideology 29

The Image of Jerusalem in the Western Liturgy 31
The Liturgy of Pilgrimage 35
The Liturgy of War 41
The Liturgy of the Cross 53

2 From Pilgrimage to Crusade 65

Pilgrims on Crusade 67
The Centrality of the Cross 72
The Rite Coalesces 77
Old Texts, New Meanings 79
Local Innovations 81
Crusade and Pilgrimage in the Papal Rite 87

- 3 On the March 93
The First Crusade 97
The Liturgy of Battle 99
Processions 110
Crusading after the First Crusade 122
- 4 Celebrating the Capture of Jerusalem in the Holy City 130
The Latin Rite in the Latin Kingdom of Jerusalem 132
The "Festivitas Ierusalem" Commemorating the Capture of the City (July 15) 137
Themes of Liberation and Salvation in the Mass and the Office 141
Prophecy and Fulfillment 148
The Rededication of the Holy Sepulcher in 1149 156
After 1187 162
- 5 Echoes of Victory in the West 165
Liturgical Commemoration and Calendars 167
Liturgy and Sacred Song 179
- 6 Clamoring to God: Liturgy as a Weapon of War 192
Begging Forgiveness and Clamoring for Help 195
Innocent III 201
The Theology of Failure and the Power of Prayer 208
Institutionalization and Response 219
"Whensoever It Might Happen that Someone Celebrates the Office of the Mass" 222
- 7 Praying against the Turks 226
The Ottoman Advance 229
Institutional Considerations 232
New Efforts 237
The Argument of the Liturgy 244
The Devotional Use of Old Testament Narrative 248
- Conclusion 256
- Appendices*
1. The Liturgy of the 15 July Commemoration 263
 2. Comparative Development of the Clamor 289
 3. Timeline of Nonliturgical Evidence for Liturgical
Supplications 309

Selected Bibliography 325

Manuscripts Cited 325

Printed Source Material 326

Studies 328

Index 339