

DEFINING THE DISCOGRAPHIC SELF
Desert Island Discs
in Context

Edited by
JULIE BROWN, NICHOLAS COOK,
AND STEPHEN COTTRELL

Published for THE BRITISH ACADEMY
by OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

List of figures and tables	vii
Notes on contributors	viii
Foreword: In search of discographic others	xi
PHILIP V. BOHLMAN
1. Introduction: Desert Island Discs in context	1
JULIE BROWN, NICHOLAS COOK, AND STEPHEN COTTRELL
Personal Spin A : Lemn Sissay (castaway, 11 October 2015)	29
I Desert Island Discs in historical perspective
2. The cultural baggage of the desert island	35
WILL STRAW
3. From Forces' Choice to Desert Island Discs : The BBC's promotion of personal choice in wartime	51
JENNY DOCTOR
4. Desert island discomorphoses: Listening formations and the material cultures of music	67
KYLE DEVINE
Personal Spin B : Derek Drescher (Desert Island Discs producer)	83
Personal Spin C : Anthony Wall (documentary film-maker)	87
II Cultural ideologies and the politics of sound
5. Adrift or ashore? Desert Island Discs and celebrity culture	93
JO LITTLER
6. Playlists and prizes: Cultural authority, personal taste, and musical value since the 1940s	107
ANDREW BLAKE
7. What does it mean to be cultured? Desert Island Discs as an ideological archive	125
SIMON FRITH
Personal Spin D : Uta Frith (castaway, 24 February 2013)	145
Personal Spin E : Angie Hobbs (castaway, 1 February 2015)	149

III Desert Island Discs and British identities

8. Desert Island Discs and British emotional life 155
 DAVID HENDY
9. Punk, class, and taste in Desert Island Discs 173
 PETER WEBB
10. Peripheral identities on Desert Island Discs and Beti a'i Phobol 189
 SARAH HILL
- Personal Spin F: Mary Beard* (castaway, 31 January 2010) 205
Personal Spin G: Nick Hornby (castaway, 28 September 2003) 209

IV Narrativising and caring for the self

11. Public and narrative selves in Desert Island Discs 215
 TIA DENORA
12. Desert island dislocation: Emotion, nostalgia, and the utility of music 239
 JULIE BROWN
13. Musicianly lives musically told: Oral history, classical music, and Desert Island Discs 257
 STEPHEN COTTRELL
- Personal Spin H: Debbie Wiseman* (castaway, 19 October 2014) 275
Personal Spin I: Steven Isserlis (castaway, 2 December 2007) 279
Personal Spin J: Gavin Bryars (castaway, 5 April 1998) 281
14. Afterword: Playing the discographic self 285
 NICHOLAS COOK
- Index 295