

Contents

Introduction 1

I. THE BEGINNINGS OF A BOUNDARY

1. Herc: The New Cool in the Bronx 17
2. South Bronx DJs vs. Other DJs 51

II. THE DEVELOPMENT OF AN INTERNAL LOGIC

3. Creating Conventions 81
4. Crews and Outside Influences 109

III. SYMBOLIC CAPITAL IN THE NEW ENTITY

5. Race, Gender, and the Pursuit of Recognition 137
6. MCs Take the Stage 164

Conclusion 187

Acknowledgments 195

Glossary of Terms 199

Notes 203

Index 233

Figures and Table

FIGURES

- 1.1. DJ Kool Herc party flier 18
- 1.2. Causes and Consequences of Concentrated Poverty 21
- 1.3. Neighborhoods of the Bronx, ca. 1940 22
- 1.4. Urban decay in the South Bronx 23
- 1.5. Robert Moses with Mayor Robert Wagner and Frank Meistrell, 1956 29
- 1.6. South Bronx teen taking part in neighborhood cleanup 30
- 1.7. Taki 183 spray painting his tag 35
- 1.8. Tony Tone and DJ Kool Herc 41
- 2.1. Afrika Bambaataa 54
- 2.2. Grandmaster Flash 65
- 2.3. The Intersection of Graffiti-Writing, Breaking, and DJing 77
- 3.1. The Inclusion of MCing 88
- 3.2. Park Jam in the Bronx 93
- 3.3. The Inclusion of the Making and Selling of Tapes 103
- 4.1. The crowd at an Indoor Jam 113
- 4.2. Flier advertising a Breakout and Baron performance, the L Brothers 115
- 4.3. Flier advertising Caz, Wiz, and Bambaataa 119
- 4.4. The Inclusion of Fashion and Routines 125
- 4.5. The Inclusion of Fliers 134
- 5.1. The Mercedes Ladies 148
- 5.2. DJ Charlie Chase and Grandmaster Caz 156
- 5.3. Samples of fliers advertising various crews 157
- 5.4. Almighty Kay Gee, Jerry Dee Lewis (JDL), Easy AD, and Grandmaster Caz 159
- 5.5. Tony Tone and his mother 161
- 5.6. Overlap of Black and Puerto Rican Life in the South Bronx during the 1970s 163
- 6.1. DJing and MCing as the Central Activities 177

TABLE

- 3.1. Sources of Conventions and Modes of Influence 83