

Contents

Preface vii

Part I Historicity 1

- 1 The stages of historical consciousness 3
- 2 Present, past and future 36
- 3 Everyday historical consciousness as the foundation of historiography and the philosophy of history 51

Part II Historiography as *episthémé 73

- 4 Introductory remarks 75
- 5 Past, present and future in historiography 79
- 6 Values in historiography 90
- 7 Moral judgments in historiography 117
- 8 The concrete norms of historiographical research 128
- 9 Theory and method in historiography 146
- 10 The organizing principles of historiography 151
- 11 The explanatory principles of historiography 159
- 12 The orientative principles of historiography 178
- 13 The 'higher' and the applied theory 183

Part III Sense and truth in history or philosophy of history 211

- 14 The specificity of philosophy of history 213
- 15 The notion of universal development as the basic category of the philosophy of history 224

- 16 Universal historical laws: goal, law and necessity 237
- 17 Holism and individualism 249
- 18 The philosophy of history and the idea of socialism 264

Part IV Introduction to a theory of history 279

- 19 History retrieved? 281
- 20 Is progress an illusion? 299
- 21 The need for Utopia 310
- 22 Some remarks about the sense of historical existence 328