

A THICKNESS OF PARTICULARS

THE POETRY OF ANTHONY HECHT

JONATHAN F. S. POST

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

List of Illustrations	xxi
1. “The Book of Yolek,” the Sestina, and the Tattoo	I
2. Circa 1950: Eclectic Hecht among the Nightingales	17
3. About Suffering: History, Domesticity, and the Making of The Hard Hours	47
4. Stretching Out, Looking Within: In Medias Res , with James Merrill	90
5. “The Venetian Vespers”: “Full of the splendor of the insubstantial”	113
6. “A shutter angles out”: Hecht’s Ekphrastic Verse	137
7. Shechtspeare	173
8. Later Flourishings: The Transparent Man and Flight Among the Tombs	210
9. The Darkness and the Light and the Art of Reticence	251
Index	283