

Janetta Rebold Benton

Art of the Middle Ages

250 illustrations, 90 in colour

Contents

- 7 Introduction
- Chapter 1 Early Christian and Byzantine
- 20 Early Christian Art: Emperor Constantine and the break between late Roman and Early Christian art • Old Saint Peter's • Santa Costanza in Rome • Mosaic decoration • Small relief sculpture • Painted catacombs Byzantine Art: Emperor Justinian and the First Golden Age • San Vitale and mosaics in Ravenna • Hagia Sophia in Constantinople • Iconoclastic Controversy and the Second Golden Age • San Marco in Venice • Small relief sculpture • Icons • Cloisonné enamel
- Chapter 2 Early Middle Ages: 'Barbarian,' Carolingian, Ottonian
- 39 Sophisticated Barbarians: Burial objects • Manuscript illumination Carolingian Art: Charlemagne and the Carolingian revival • Palace Chapel in Aachen • Saint-Riquier • Plan of Saint Gall • Small relief sculpture in ivory, gold, and gems • Manuscript illumination Ottonian Art: Saint Michael's in Hildesheim • Gero Crucifix • Manuscript illumination
- Chapter 3 Romanesque in Central France and Along the Pilgrimage Roads
- 55 Monasteries • Pilgrimage churches • Vaulting methods: Saint-Philibert in Tournus • Sites and structures: Le Puy Cathedral and Sainte-Madeleine in Vézelay • Tympana: Sainte-Madeleine in Vézelay and Saint-Lazare in Autun • Monastic conflict: Cluniac opulence (Cluny) versus Cistercian austerity (Fontenay)
- Chapter 4 Romanesque in Southern and Western France
- 82 Antique influences: Saint-Gilles-du-Gard and Saint-Trophême in Arles • Sculpture: Saint-Pierre in Moissac • Hall churches • Murals at Saint-Savin-sur-Gartempe • Fresco secco mural painting • Mont Saint-Michel • William the Conqueror and Saint-Etienne in Caen • Bayeux Tapestry
- Chapter 5 Romanesque Outside France
- 104 England • Norway • Low Countries • Germany • Italy • Spain

Chapter 6	Romanesque Sculpture, Decorative Arts, and Manuscript Illumination
132	Cult of the Virgin • Cult of the relics • Champelevé enamel • Metalwork • Ivory carving • Manuscript illumination
Chapter 7	Earlier Gothic in France
149	Early Gothic : Saint-Denis, Laon Cathedral, and Notre-Dame in Paris High Gothic : Chartres Cathedral and Reims Cathedral • Sculpture: the human figure • Saint-Etienne in Bourges and Saint-Julien in Le Mans • Saint-Pierre in Beauvais
Chapter 8	Later Gothic in France
176	Rayonnant Gothic : Sainte-Chapelle in Paris • Transepts of Saint-Denis and Notre-Dame in Paris • Stone lace: Saint- Urbain in Troyes and Saint-Ouen in Rouen • Stained glass Flamboyant Gothic : Saint-Maclou in Rouen, Saint-Etienne in Beauvais, Saint-Nizier in Troyes, Saint-Thiébaud in Thann • Cloisters: Saint-Etienne in Toul and Saint-Dié • Gargoyles • Medieval cathedral construction
Chapter 9	Gothic Outside France
201	England • Germany • Bohemia • Switzerland • Spain • Italy
Chapter 10	Gothic Sculpture, Decorative Arts, Manuscript Illumination, and Painting
241	Northern Europe : Emotional imagery • Precious objects of metal, enamel, and ivory • Manuscript illumination: a golden age • Tapestries Italy : Nicola and Giovanni Pisano • Duccio of Siena • Egg tempera painting • Fresco buono mural painting • San Francesco and frescoes in Assisi • Giotto of Florence • Simone Martini • Ambrogio and Pietro Lorenzetti • Gentile da Fabriano
Chapter 11	Art in Daily Life During the Middle Ages
279	Ecclesiastical vestments • Secular attire • Armor • Half- timbered houses • Black-and-white manor houses • Ca' d'Oro in Venice • Fortresses and castles • Medieval mischief and wit
302	Map of Western and Central Europe
303	Chronology
308	Glossary
309	Bibliography
313	List of Illustrations
316	Index