

Clerical Households in Late Medieval Italy

Roisin Cossar

Harvard University Press

CAMBRIDGE, MASSACHUSETTS · LONDON, ENGLAND

2017

Contents

Introduction	I
PART I: Making Records	19
1. Notaries, Registers, and Archives	21
Notaries	21
Notarial Registers	29
Archiving Notarial Registers	34
Conclusion	38
2. Records as Artifacts and Historical Events	39
Testaments	39
Inventories and Lists of Household Objects	49
Visitation Records	54
Conclusion	60
PART II: The Clerical Familia	61
3. Priests as Patriarchs: The Clergy and Their Households	63
Clerical Culture in Venice	64
Naming the Clergy	66
The Clerical Life Cycle	70
Youth	71
Middle Age	77
Bonds with Extended Family	85

An Aging Cleric: Graciolus de Sangervasio of Bergamo	88
Aging Notaries	91
Conclusion	92
4. "She Is Not My Wife but a Servant": Clerics' Companions	94
Names	95
Titles and Labels	99
Treatment of Women in Venetian Priests' Testaments	106
Vulnerability and Invisibility	112
Support	115
Companions as Mothers	118
Clerics' Companions as Priests' Mothers	121
Conclusion	131
5. Material Culture and Work in the Clerical Domus	132
Descriptions of Clerical Housing in City and Countryside	133
The Material Culture of the Clerical Residence	140
Work in the Clerical Residence	148
Conclusion	157
Conclusion	159
Notes	167
Acknowledgments	223
Index	227