

Dementia and Literature

Interdisciplinary Perspectives

Edited by Tess Maginess

Contents

Notes on contributors	vii
Foreword	xi
KATE SWAFFER
Acknowledgements	xiv
Introduction	1
TESS MAGINESS
1 Entering a new landscape: dementia in literature	21
RAGNA AADLANDSVIK
2 Dementia and symbiosis in Waiting for Godot	37
BRIEGE CASEY
3 ‘Poor, bare fork’d animal’: the representation of dementia in King Lear	53
TESS MAGINESS AND HANNAH ZEILIG
4 Representations of dementia in Arabic literature	71
FATEN HUSSEIN
5 Missing pieces: trauma, dementia and the ethics of reading in Elizabeth is missing	88
LUCY BURKE
6 Personal identity and personhood: the role of fiction and biographical accounts in dementia	103
FEMI OYEBODE AND JAN OYEBODE

7	Language breakdown and the construction of meaning: linguistic frameworks for readings of dementia in literature	115
	JOAN RAHILLY
8	Beyond shadow and play: different representations of dementia in contemporary Scandinavian literature	133
	NORA SIMONHJELL
9	Dementia in recent Indian fiction in English	148
	PRAMOD K. NAYAR
10	Arts and healing: learning from dementia literature	160
	MAEVE REA
	Index	174