

Publisher's Preface vi	1 An Aesthetic of the Cool 1	9 Activating Heaven: The Art of Jean-Michel Basquiat 38	18 Illuminating Spirits: A Review 106
Introduction by Lowery Stokes Sims viii	2 The Afro-Cuban Departures of Mongo Santamaria 8	10 Hip Hop 101 44	19 Face of the Gods 110
	3 New Voice from the Barrios 12	11 From the First to the Final Thunder: African American Quilts 50	20 Tap-Tap, Fula-Fula, Kiá-Kiá: The Haitian Bus in Atlantic Perspective 117
	4 An Aesthetic of the Cool II 16	12 Tough Guys Do Dance 55	21 Sacred Silhouettes, José Bedia 124
	5 An Introduction to Black Atlantic Art History 24	13 An Interview: Donald J. Cosentino and Robert Farris Thompson 59	22 Keith Haring and the Dance 131
	6 Nueva York's Salsa Music 30	14 Betye Saar: Chance and Destiny 71	23 Communiqué from Afro-Atlantis 140
	7 Special Projects for Eternity 33	15 Soul Physician, Renée Stout 76	24 An Interview: Ned Sublette and Robert Farris Thompson 143
	8 PRODIGAL SON ALICE'S BOY 34	16 Jean-Michel Basquiat: Royalty, Heroism, and the Streets 78	25 Kongo Louisiana, Kongo New Orleans 156
		17 David Hammons: "Knowing Their Past" 92	Notes 167
			Note on the Author 177
			Bibliography: The Writings of Robert Farris Thompson 177
			Acknowledgements 179

Contents