

Like Everyone Else but Different

The Paradoxical Success of Canadian Jews

SECOND EDITION

MORTON WEINFELD

with RANDAL F. SCHNOOR and MICHELLE SHAMES

Carleton Library Series 245

McGill-Queen's University Press
Montreal & Kingston • London • Chicago

Contents

- Preface to the Second Edition vii
- Preface to the First Edition ix
- Introduction: A Paradoxical People: Diversity and Success 3
- 1 Who Are the Jews? The Elements of Jewish Diversity 16
- 2 Quality, Quantity, and Conflict: The Socio-demographic Context of Jewish Survival 41
- 3 Building a Community: Migration and Regional Settlement 55
- 4 Earning a Living: From Work to Wealth 86
- 5 The Bonds of Intimacy: Jewish Families and Relationships 116
- 6 The Communal Foundation of Jewish Life: People, Neighbourhoods, and Organizations 153
- 7 Between High Culture and Daily Life: From Literature and Art to Klezmer and Kugel 186
- 8 The People of the Book: Jewish Education and Jewish Survival 218
- 9 Jews, Judaism, and the Public Square: The Political Behaviour of Canadian Jews 243
- 10 A Holy Nation: Canadian Judaism between Tradition and Modernity 274
- 11 Sticks, Stones, and Social Relations: The Evolving Forms of Anti-Semitism 307

Epilogue: A Canadian Jewish Model? 337

APPENDICES

I Counts of the Canadian Jewish Population 345

2 Sources of Evidence 351

3 Bibliographic Essay 353

Notes 359

Index 423