

Heike Schaefer • Alexander Starre
Editors

The Printed Book in Contemporary American Culture

Medium, Object, Metaphor

palgrave
macmillan

CONTENTS

Section I	Introduction	1
1	The Printed Book, Contemporary Media Culture, and American Studies	3
	Heike Schaefer and Alexander Starre
Section II	The Printed Book and Formations of Knowledge in the Digital Age	29
2	The Books That Count: Big Data Versus Narrative in Robin Sloan's Mr. Penumbra's 24-Hour Bookstore and Joshua Cohen's Book of Numbers	31
	Regina Schober
3	US Print Culture, Literary Narrative, and Slow Reading in the Age of Big Data: Steve Tomasula's VAS: An Opera in Flatland	53
	Antje Kley

4	“Books and Books and Books ... an Oasis of the Forbidden”: Writing and Print Culture as Metaphor and Medium for Survival in Margaret Atwood’s Novel The Handmaid’s Tale	69
	Reingard M. Nischik
5	Zines in the Library: Underground Communication and the Property Regimes of Book Culture	87
	Janice Radway
	Section III The Book as Commodity and Fetish	115
6	The Book Between Media Convergence, Media Specificity, and Diverse Reading Communities in Present-Day US Culture	117
	Christoph Bläsi
7	Michael Cunningham’s The Hours: Homage to the Book in a Time of Media Transformation	139
	Aleida Assmann
8	“There’s Nothing Quite Like a Real Book”: Stop-Motion Bookishness	155
	Jessica Pressman
	Section IV Redesigning the Codex: Current Experiments in and Beyond the Book	177
9	Remediation, Oral Storytelling, and the Printed Book: The Stylistic Strategies of Mark Z. Danielewski’s The Fifty Year Sword	179
	Alison Gibbons
10	Book Design as Literary Strategy: Aka Morchiladze’s Novel Santa Esperanza and Its Poetics of Playful Storytelling	203
	Monika Schmitz-Emans

11	Authorial Impression and Remediation in Anne Carson's Quasi-Artist's Book Nox	227
	Kiene Brillenburg Wurth
	Section V Afterword	253
12	The Storied Book	255
	Garrett Stewart
	Author Index	265
	Subject Index	275