

---

Contents

---

List of contributors	viii
Introduction Teresa Wright	1
PART 1 OVERVIEWS
1 Unrest and regime survival Andrew Wedeman	12
2 Social unrest in China: a bird's-eye view Christian Göbel	27
PART 2 PROTEST, DISSENT, AND THE LAW
3 Governing political expression: legitimacy and legal culture Pitman B. Potter	47
4 Legal advocacy as liberal resistance: the experience of China's human rights lawyers Eva Pils	62
5 Mass disputes and China's legal system Hualing Fu	75
6 Dissent below the radar: contention in the daily politics of grassroots organizations Sophia Woodman	91
PART 3 URBAN LABOR
7 Labor legislation, workers, and the Chinese state Jenny Chan and Mark Selden	105
8 Worker protests and state response in present-day China: trends, characteristics, and new developments, 2011–2016 Lu Zhang	119
9 China's contentious cab drivers Manfred Elfstrom	137
10 Thinking like a state: doing labor activism in South China Darcy Pan	151

PART 4 RURAL RESIDENTS

- 11 Collective petition and local state responses in rural China 167
Lei Guang and Yang Su
- 12 Land protests in rural China 184
Christopher Heurlin

PART 5 URBAN HOMEOWNERS

- 13 Homeowners' rights protection actions in China: why some succeed and others fail 204
Zhiming Sheng
- 14 Homeowners' activism in urban China: old goals, new strategies 219
Dragan Pavličević, Long Sun and Zhengxu Wang

PART 6 ENVIRONMENTAL PROTEST

- 15 Environmental public interest campaigns: a new phenomenon in China's contentious politics 235
H. Christoph Steinhardt
- 16 Networked contention against waste incinerators in China: brokers, linkages and dynamics of diffusion 253
Björn Alpermann and Maria Bondes
- 17 Possibilities for environmental governance in China? Anti-incinerator activists turned participants in municipal waste management in Guangzhou 266
Natalie W.M. Wong
- 18 Anti-nuclear protest in China 280
Simona A. Grano and Yuheng Zhang

PART 7 RELIGION

- 19 Religious charity, repurposing, and "claim-staking" resistance: the case of Gospel Rehab 290
Susan K. McCarthy
- 20 Informality as resistance among Catholics and Protestants in China 305
Marie-Eve Reny
- 21 Protestant resistance and activism in China's official churches 316
Carsten Vala

PART 8 INFORMATION AND COMMUNICATIONS TECHNOLOGIES

- 22 From mobilization to legitimation: digital media and the evolving repertoire of contention in contemporary China 332
Jun Liu
- 23 Patriotism without state blessing: Chinese cyber nationalists in a predicament 346
Rongbin Han
- 24 Microblog dissent and censorship during the 2012 Bo Xilai scandal 361
Christopher Cairns

PART 9 HONG KONG

- 25 Hong Kong's struggle to define its political future 378
Suzanne Pepper
- 26 Dissenting media in post-1997 Hong Kong 394
Joyce Y.M. Nip

PART 10 ETHNIC MINORITIES

- 27 The environmental protest movement in Inner Mongolia 406
Uchralt Otede
- 28 Ethnic unrest and China's multiple problematic others 417
Tom Cliff
- 29 More creative, more international: shifts in Uyghur-related violence 432
Justin V. Hastings
- Index* 447