

CONTENTS

1. STRATEGIES FOR READING	I
Narrative	I
Biblical narrative	3
Historical criticism, literary criticism, and the meanings of the text	7
Varieties of interpretation: Genesis 4 through 2000 years	12
Similarity and difference	27
2. TAMAR AND JUDAH: GENESIS 38	34
3. CHARACTERS AND NARRATORS	46
Readers and people	46
The narrator	52
The characters	63
Reconstructing characters	75
Reconstructing YHWH	81
4. ABRAHAM AND SARAH: GENESIS 11-22	90
5. DESIGNS ON THE PLOT	101
Reading for the plot: desire for order	101
Plots and points of view: Judges 10-12	112
Fracturing the plot: the codas to Judges and Samuel	120
6. JONAH AND GOD: THE BOOK OF JONAH	129
7. THE LURE OF LANGUAGE	147
Repetition and variation	148
Multivalence, ambiguity, and metaphor	155
Reading for the metaphor: Judges 1	158
Allusion and intertextuality	163
Reading between words and stories: the house of David	165
8. NEBUCHADNEZZAR AND THE THREE JEWS: DANIEL 3	174

9. READERS AND RESPONSIBILITY	189
Literature and ideology	189
The Bible and ideology	192
Genesis 2–3: women, men, and God	194
Conclusion	204
Bibliography	206
Index of Passages Cited	253
Index of Biblical Names	257
General Index	260