

Contents

Preface	vii
Introduction
Lord of Three Gifts: A New Approach to the Hebrew God	1
1. Dumézil, the Deluge, and the Dream of Solomon	3
2. The Thesis of the Present Book	12
The First Image: Lord of Wisdom	15
3. The Lord of Esoteric Wisdom	17
4. Mythology Associated with the Lord of Wisdom	24
5. An Alternative View: God as Lawgiver and Scribe	34
The Second Image: Lord of War	45
6. God as Lord of War	47
7. The Warrior's Initiation and God's Battle with the Monster	53
8. From Exodus to Apocalyptic Drama	63
The Third Image: Lord of the Animals	75
9. God as Lord of the Animals	77
10. Human Authority over Animals	91
11. The Rediscovery of the Lord of the Animals, ca. 500 B.C.E.	99
The Fourth Image: Lord of the Individual— the "Personal God"	109
12. The Discovery of Personal Piety	111
13. God as Lord of the Individual: The Egyptian Contribution	115
14. God as Lord of the Individual: The Mesopotamian Contribution	126
The Fifth Image: Lord of the Harvest	139
15. The Fertile Crescent	141
16. Lord of the Harvest: Archaic Natural Theologies	146
17. Lord of the Harvest: Theologies Shaped by Historical Experience	159

Epilogue

The Hebrew God: Fragments of a History	171
18. Manifestations of the Divine and Historical Beginnings	173
19. The “Sacred Story” and Monotheism	179
20. Christ as Second God	189
Appendix I. The Names of the Hebrew God	198
Appendix II. The Ancient Near East, ca. 3400–500 B.C.E.:
A Brief Guide to Its Cultural History	209
Abbreviations	216
Notes	217
Illustration Credits and Museum Locations	228
Bibliography	230
Index	240