

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Foreword by Professor P. S. Minear	xi
Preface	xiii
I. Introductions to the New Testament	I
II. The Synoptic gospels	6
1. Introduction.	6
2. The Synoptic problem	8
3. History of the research into the synoptic problem.	12
4. From Jesus to the gospels	16
5. Mark.	22
6. Matthew	28
7. Luke.	35
8. Summary.	41
III. The Gospel of John.	43
1. Contents	43
2. Comparison with the synoptic gospels	45
3. Interpolations, transpositions and sources.	47
4. Nature	52
5. Purpose	53
6. Author	55
7. Time and place of origin; destination.	58
IV. The Acts of the Apostles.	60
1. Contents	60
2. Nature	61
3. Sources.	63
4. Author	66
5. Time and place of origin	66
6. The text of Acts.	66

V. Paul and his letters.	68
1. The number of Paul's letters	68
2. The nature of Paul's letters	70
3. Chronology of Paul's life	71
4. The place of Paul's letters in the early Christian church	72
VI. The letter to the Romans	74
1. Origins of the Christian community in Rome	74
2. Composition of the congregation.	76
3. Purpose of the letter	77
4. Time and place of origin	77
5. Unity of the letter	78
6. Contents of the letter.	81
VII. The letters to the Corinthians	84
1. The city of Corinth.	84
2. The origins of the Christian community in Corinth	84
3. Composition of the congregation.	84
4. Time and place of origin	85
5. Reasons for writing the letters.	88
6. The situation in the congregation	89
7. Opponents	90
VIII. The letters to the Galatians	92
1. Galatia	92
2. Destination and date.	92
3. Situation in the congregation and purpose of the letter.	95
4. Opponents and Paul's gospel	97
IX. The letter to the Ephesians	99
1. Destination.	99
2. Connection with the letter to the Colossians.	101
3. Authenticity of the letter.	103
4. Reasons for writing the letter	104

5.	Place and time of origin and destination	105
6.	The place of this letter among the letters of Paul	106
X.	The letter to the Philippians.	107
1.	The city of Philippi and the origins of the Christian congregation in this place.	107
2.	Reasons for writing this letter.	108
3.	The false doctrine discussed in the letter	109
4.	Unity of the letter	110
5.	Time and place of origin	111
6.	Significance of the letter	112
XI.	The letter of the Colossians	113
1.	The Christian community of Colossae.	113
2.	Circumstances in which the letter was written	113
3.	Reasons for writing the letter	114
4.	The false teaching propagated at Colossae.	114
5.	Time and place of origin	116
6.	Authenticity.	117
7.	Significance of the letter	117
XII.	The letters to the Thessalonians	118
1.	The city of Thessalonica and the origins of its Christian community.	118
2.	Circumstances in which the letters were written	119
3.	Reasons for writing the letters.	120
4.	Authenticity of II Thessalonians.	122
XIII.	The letters to Timothy and Titus.	124
1.	Persons addressed	124
2.	Circumstances in which the letters were written.	125
3.	Reasons for writing the letters.	126
4.	Authenticity of the letters.	127
5.	Time and place of origin	133
XIV.	The letter to Philemon	135
1.	Circumstances in which the letter was written	135

2. Reasons for writing the letter	135
3. Time and place of origin	135
XV. The collecting of Paul's letters	136
XVI. The letter to the Hebrews	139
1. Nature and contents	139
2. Author and addressees.	140
3. Place and date of origin.	143
4. Purpose of the letter	143
XVII. Introduction to the Catholic letters.	145
XVIII. James.	147
1. Nature and contents	147
2. Author and addressees	149
3. Significance of the letter	151
XIX. I Peter	153
1. Nature and contents	153
2. Author and addressees	155
3. Time and place of origin	157
4. Significance of the letter	158
XX. Jude and II Peter	159
1. Nature and contents of the letters	159
2. Authors and addressees.	160
3. Time and place of origin	162
4. Significance of the letters.	163
XXI. I, II, and III John	164
1. Contents and nature of the letters	164
2. Author and addressees	167
3. Significance of the letters.	168
XXII. The Revelation of John	170

1. Contents	170
2. Nature	171
3. Sources and structure.	174
4. Author	175
5. Time and place of origin.	176
6. Interpretation.	177
XXIII. The Canon of the New Testament	178
1. The meaning of the word canon	178
2. The transition from oral to written tradition. . .	179
3. The development towards the fixing of the canon	181
XXIV. The text of the New Testament	185
1. The making of manuscripts	185
2. Existing manuscripts.	187
3. History of textual criticism	194
4. Recent investigations into the history of the text and the restoration of the original text	196
Appendices	199
A. Papias on Mark and Matthew.	199
B. Summary of Paul's life	202
C. The inscription at Delphi with the name of Gallio. . .	206
D. Comparison of the letters to the Ephesians and to the Colossians	208
E. Canon Muratori.	218
F. Table of facts concerning the books of the New Testament	222
Bibliography	226
Index.	234