

Contents

| | |
|---|-----|
| Preface | vi |
| About this Book | vii |
| 1. Why the Gospels were Written | 1 |
| The Need for the Written Gospel | 1 |
| Facts and Theories | 8 |
| Special Note A. Oral Tradition | 19 |
| 2. The Gospel According to Mark | 22 |
| Authorship: Links with Peter and Paul | 22 |
| A Gospel for Gentiles | 27 |
| 3. The Gospel According to Matthew | 35 |
| Authorship: A Concern for the Law | 35 |
| A Gospel for Jewish Christians | 37 |
| 4. Luke–Acts: A Book in Two Parts | 46 |
| Authorship: A Concern for History | 46 |
| The Gospel According to Luke | 47 |
| A Gospel for All Peoples | 47 |
| The Acts of the Apostles | 57 |
| Triumph of the Gospel | 57 |
| 5. The Gospel According to John | 65 |
| The Gospel of Love | 66 |
| Authorship: Links with the ‘Beloved Disciple’? | 75 |
| 6. The Old Testament in the New Testament | 81 |
| The Jewish Scriptures | 81 |
| Scripture Fulfilled | 87 |
| 7. The Canon: Christian Writings become Scripture | 93 |
| Documents of the Early Church | 93 |
| Christian Writings become Scripture | 95 |
| Special Note B. The Inspiration of the New Testament | 106 |
| 8. Texts and Translations | 111 |
| Texts | 111 |
| Translations | 118 |
| Appendixes | 129 |
| 1. Glossary of Technical Terms | 129 |
| 2. Common Abbreviations | 132 |
| Key to Study Suggestions | 134 |
| Index | 140 |