

PLAN

Acknowledgments	5
Bibliography	9
Abbreviations	17
Introduction	19
I. The Sources of the Imperial Cult and Its Early Development	23
a) Divine Honours in the Hellenistic East	24
b) Divine Honours in the Roman Republic	27
c) Divine Honours in the Early Empire	30
II. New Testament Implications towards the Roman Empire and the Emperor .	36
a) The Attitude of Christ towards the Roman Empire	36
b) The Attitude of St. Paul towards the Emperor	39
c) The Attitude of Pilate and the Significance of the Expression 'Friend of Caesar'	44
III. References to the Imperial Cult in the Apocalypse	50
1. The 'Blasphemous Titles' of the First Beast	50
a) The Title 'Κύριος' in Imperial and Christian Usage	53
b) 'Σωτήρ' – Its Hellenistic and Christian Meaning	63
c) The Title of 'Divi Filius'	71
2. Acclamations – a Possible Interpretation of the Term 'Blasphemous Titles' as Used in the Apocalypse	74
3. The Legend of 'Nero Redivivus'	88
IV. The Significance of the 'Second Beast' of the Apocalypse and Its Implications in Imperial Worship	96
a) The Priesthoods.....	96
b) The Significance of the Term 'Image of the Beast' and the Importance of Statues in Imperial Cult Worship	104

V. Two Cult-Expressions Paralleled in Imperial and Christian Usage	113
1. The Notion of 'Ascension' as an Expression of Glorification	113
2. The Profane and Religious Implications of the Term 'Επιφάνεια'	134
VI. Persecution in Relation to the Imperial Cult	145
a) Direct Persecution and Its Causes	146
b) Indirect Persecution	154
Conclusion	159
Scriptural Index	162
Indices	163
Modern Scholars	166