

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface	ix
Abbreviations	xv
Introduction	1
I. From Strato's Tower to the Founding of Caesarea	5
A. The Persian Period	5
B. The Hellenistic Period	6
C. The Founding of Caesarea under Herod	11
II. The First Century	15
A. Under Herod	15
B. Under Roman Rule	18
1. 'Procurators'	18
2. Jewish Community	22
3. Christian Community	24
C. Under Agrippa I	27
D. The Jewish-Greek Conflict	29
E. Caesarea during the Jewish Revolt	31
III. The Second Century : Caesarea as a Roman Colony	34
A. Introduction	34
B. Colonial Status	35
1. Inscriptions	36
2. Coins	38
3. Literary Sources	39
C. The Provincial Capital	41
D. The Jewish Community	44
IV. Caesarea in the Third and Fourth Centuries	46
A. New Prestige	46
B. Economic Life	48
1. Introduction	48
2. Agriculture	51
3. Industry	52
4. Commerce-Domestic	54
5. Commerce-Foreign	54

6. Investments	56
C. Pagan Community	57
V. The Jewish Community	61
A. The Historical Background of the Community	63
B. Socio-Economic Diversity of Caesarean Jewry	68
C. Cultural and Religious Activity	70
D. The Jews and their Neighbors	80
E. The Caesarean Rabbinate	86
1. The Emergence and Development of the Caesarean Rabbinate—ca. 230-360	86
2. The Rabbinic Class	92
3. 'Rabbis of Caesarea' — A Rabbinic Guild ?	95
4. The Rabbis and the Courts	98
5. The Rabbis within the Jewish Community	101
6. The Academy and its Studies	103
VI. The Samaritan Community	107
VII. The Christian Community	113
A. Sources	113
B. The Caesarean Episcopate and Clergy	113
C. Origen and his School in Caesarea	119
D. Pamphilus and Eusebius	124
E. The Christian Community	127
F. Persecutions	131
VIII. Caesarea under Byzantine Rule	135
Conclusion	140
Notes	143
Bibliography	242
Indices	269