

Contents

Preface

I Cultural and Religious Developments in the Hellenistic Age	1
1. A changing cultural pattern	1
(a) One culture, one world	1
(b) An age of syncretism	2
(c) A composite culture	4
(d) Reaction against Hellenism	5
2. Religious developments	8
(a) Temple and Torah	8
(b) Parties in Judaism	10
(c) Purification and separation	12
(d) Religious ideas	14
3. Judaism and Jesus	15
(a) The Jewishness of Jesus	15
(b) Judaism transformed	17
II Sources and Scripture	19
1. An age of literary activity	19
(a) The Septuagint (LXX)	19
(b) Biblical books	20
(c) Apocrypha and pseudepigrapha	20
(d) Other sources	23
2. Canonicity and authority	26
(a) Landmarks in a process	27
(b) Hebrew and Greek versions	31
(c) The worth of scripture	31

III Biblical Interpretation in Early Judaism and the New Testament	34
1. Interpretation in the Old Testament	34
(a) Event and interpretation	34
(b) Levites as interpreters of Torah	36
2. Rabbinic interpretation	36
(a) Ezra, the Sopherim and their successors	36
(b) Mishnah and Midrash: oral tradition	38
(c) Forms of rabbinic exegesis	39
(d) Scripture and revelation	40
3. Interpretation in other types of Jewish literature	42
(a) The Genesis Apocryphon and Jubilees	42
(b) Targumim	43
(c) Apocalyptic books	44
(d) Qumran literature	45
4. Interpretation in the New Testament	48
(a) Familiarity with the Old Testament	48
(b) Similarities with rabbinic tradition	49
(c) Similarities with Qumran writings	52
(d) Jesus' interpretation of scripture	54
IV The Development and Meaning of Torah	55
1. Law as revelation	55
(a) A comprehensive term	55
(b) Covenant and law	55
(d) Moses: priest and lawgiver	56
(d) A written code	57
(e) Symbol of Judaism	58
(f) Law as oral tradition	59
2. Law as legislation	60
(a) A shift of emphasis	60
(b) Outward observances	60
(c) A means of merit	61
(d) Piety and devotion	62
(e) Jesus and the Pharisees	63

3. Law and its attributes	64
(a) Pre-existent and eternal	65
(b) Immutable	65
(c) Universal	66
4. Law and its demands	67
(a) A sense of despair	67
(b) In the messianic age	68
(c) The law of Christ	69
V Prayer and Mediation	71
1. Prayer and response	72
(a) Prayer and piety	72
(b) The divine response	74
2. Angels as intermediaries	75
(a) In the Old Testament	76
(b) A hierarchical system	77
(c) Titles and names	77
(d) Guardians of the nations	78
(e) 'Inferior angels'	79
3. Wisdom, Spirit and Logos	80
(a) A comparative examination	80
(b) The early church's articulation	84
VII Demonology and the Problem of Evil	85
1. The origin of evil	85
(a) Human freedom and divine control	85
(b) Fallen angels and evil spirits	87
(c) Satan and his angels	89
2. Evil spirits and their manifestations	90
(a) Corruption and disease	90
(b) Cosmic control	93
3. The New Testament witness	95
(a) Sin and Satan	95
(b) Satan's rule	96
(c) Jesus' mission	97

VII The Secret Tradition of Jewish Apocalyptic	99
1. The secret tradition	99
(a) Made known to 'the wise'	99
(b) A divine mystery	100
(c) An 'open secret'	101
2. Apocalyptic as revelation	102
(a) Arising from experience	103
(b) Conveyed by long tradition	107
(c) Based on scripture	112
3. The content of the tradition	114
(a) Creation	114
(b) History	117
(c) 'The age to come'	119
VIII The Future Hope	122
1. The consummation	122
(a) The 'messianic' kingdom	122
(b) Messiah and Son of Man	125
(c) Jesus as Messiah/Son of Man	129
2. The life to come	130
(a) The resurrection	130
(b) 'Truncated' souls	132
(c) The resurrection body	133
(d) The final judgment	134
(e) The Christian hope	135
For Further Reading	136
Index of Texts	139
Index of Subjects	144
Index of Modern Scholars	150