

Contents

General preface to the series	v
1 Pharisees and Sadducees	1
The Oral Torah
Tradition and innovation
The question of authority
2 The Religious Scene	11
The Pharisees
The Sadducees
The Samaritans
The Essenes
The Qumran sect
The Apocalyptists
The Zealots
The Hasidim
Diaspora Judaism: Babylonia and Egypt
Other Diaspora communities
Christianity
3 Pharisaic Judaism	38
The New Testament view
Historical origins
Interpretation of the biblical laws
Jesus and the Sabbath laws
4 Religious Reforms	52
Capital punishment
Suspicion of adultery
Ammonites and Moabites
Women's rights

5	The Synagogue Synagogue and temple Organization Pharisee influences	59
6	Religion and Education Bible readings Rabbinical training The morality of education	70
7	The Religious Year The calendar The pilgrim festivals The Days of Awe Animal sacrifices The Sabbath and the minor festivals	84
8	Ritual Purity Impurity and sinfulness The haberim New Testament interpretation	95
9	The World-View of Judaism The Exodus story Revolutionary ideology Life after death God-fearers	108
10	Love of Neighbour The 'book of all humanity' Obligations between Jews Inequalities in society Welfare and charity	119
11	After the Destruction	130
	Bibliography	133
	Index	134