

CONTENTS

Preface	7
---------------	---

Part I Preparation for the Passion

Introduction	15
I The Passion of the Baptist	16
II Plots Against Jesus' Life	20
A. The Plot in Galilee (3:6)	21
B. The Plot in Jerusalem (11:18)	24
III The Way of the Son of Man (8:22-10:52).....	28
A. The Journey	30
B. The Disciples	31
C. The Cross as Revelation and Crisis	35
IV The Passion of the Community	37
Conclusion	39

Part II The Passion (Mark 14:1-15:47)

Introduction	41
I Fidelity and Betrayal: The Passion Begins (14:1-10)	42
A. Time for the Plot (14:1-2).....	43
B. The Burial Anointing (14:3-9)	44
C. Judas' Betrayal (14:10-11).....	48
II The Final Passover (14:12-31)	49
A. Preparation for the Passover (14:12-17).....	50
B. Prediction of Betrayal (14:18-21).....	52
C. The Meal.....	53
D. Predictions of Discipleship Broken and Renewed (14:26-31)	62
III Gethsemane: Prayer and Arrest (14:32-52).....	67
A. Prayer in Gethsemane (14:32-42).....	69
B. The Arrest (14:43-52)	80
IV The Trial Before the Sanhedrin: Confession and Denial (Mark 14:53-72).....	85
A. Jesus and Peter (14:53-54)	86

B. The Confession before Sanhedrin (14:55-65) ..	88
C. Peter's Denial (14:66-72)	102
V The Trial Before Pilate:
Jesus the King (15:1-20a)	105
A. The Interrogation: "Are You the King of the Jews?" (15:1-5)	107
B. Jesus or Barabbas (15:6-14)	110
C. Mockery of the King (15:16-20)	112
VI Crucifixion and Death (Mark 15:20b-41)	114
A. Golgotha (15:20b-24)	115
B. Final Mockery (15:25-32)	117
C. Death (15:33-41)	121
VII The Tomb (15:42-47)	132
The End: The Passion as Prelude to Resurrection	135

Part III The Passion of Jesus: Mark's Message

The Passion and Mark's Portrait of Jesus	139
1. The death of Jesus is the climax of a life for others	139
2. In his passage from death to life, Jesus is proclaimed as the suffering yet triumphant Son of Man	142
3. Jesus' death is a "theophany," revealing God's power at work in weakness	144
The Passion and Mark's Portrayal of the Church	148
1. The way of the disciple must be the way of the cross	148
2. The church, through the experience of the cross, is to be a non-triumphant, reconciled church	150
3. The crisis of the passion reminds the church that it must be open to outsiders ..	153
4. The church is to be a living "Temple," open to all people and suffused with the spirit of the crucified Christ	155
5. The passion reveals that the redemptive mission of the church is world-wide and costly	156
Indexes	157