

---

Contents

---

CHAPTER 1

WARREN CARTER

An Audience-Oriented Approach to Matthew's Parables 1

1. Parables and Jesus 2
2. Parables and Matthew 5
3. An Audience-Oriented Approach 8
4. Which Parables? 17
5. Final Comment 21

CHAPTER 2

JOHN PAUL HEIL

Parable of the Wise and Foolish Builders in Matthew 7:24–27 23

1. Sermon on the Mount 25
2. Matthew 7:13–14: Comparison of the Two Gates or Ways 27
3. Matthew 7:15–23: Comparison of Good and Bad Trees 28
4. Matthew 7:24–27: Parable of Wise and Foolish Builders 31
5. Conclusion 34

CHAPTER 3

WARREN CARTER

The Parables in Matthew 13:1–52 as Embedded Narratives 36

1. Matthew 1–12 as the Frame for the Parables in Matthew 13 38
2. Matthew 13 and the Parables of the “Reign of the Heavens” 53
3. Redundancy, Expanding Symbols, and Performative Language 59
4. Conclusion 63

CHAPTER 4

JOHN PAUL HEIL

Narrative Progression of the Parables Discourse in Matthew 13:1–52 64

1. Matthew 13:1–9: Audience of Crowds (with Disciples) 68
  2. Matthew 13:10–23: Audience of Disciples (without Crowds) 72
  3. Matthew 13:24–35: Audience of Crowds (with Disciples) 77
  4. Matthew 13:36–52: Audience of Disciples (without Crowds) 83
- Conclusion 93

CHAPTER 5

JOHN PAUL HEIL

Parable of the Unforgiving Forgiven Servant in Matthew 18:21–35 96

1. Matthew 17:22–23: Sadness in Galilee
When Jesus Predicts His Death and Resurrection 97
  2. Matthew 17:24–27: Comparison with the Free Sons of a King and Avoiding Scandal 101
  3. Matthew 18:1–5: Comparison of Becoming Like Children
To Enter the Reign of the Heavens 103
  4. Matthew 18:6–9: Entering Life Compared to Gehenna
by Avoiding Scandal of Little Ones 105
  5. Matthew 18:10–14: Not Losing a Little One
Compared to a Man Who Did Not Lose One Sheep 109
  6. Matthew 18:15–20: Comparison of an Incurable Brother with Pagans and Tax Collectors 112
  7. Matthew 18:21–35: Parable of the Unforgiving
Forgiven Servant 116
- Conclusion 122

CHAPTER 6

WARREN CARTER

Parable of the Householder in Matthew 20:1–16 124

1. The Parable in the Context of Matthew 19–20 124
2. Structure of the Parable 135
3. The Parable's Redefinition of "What Is Right" 137
4. The Parable and the Reign of the Heavens 143

CHAPTER 7

WARREN CARTER

The Parables in Matthew 21:28–22:14 147

1. The Parables in Narrative Context 148
2. Matthew 21:28–32: Parable of a Man Who Had Two Sons 155
3. Matthew 21:33–46: Parable of the Householder, the Vineyard, and the Tenants 159
4. Matthew 22:1–14: Parable of the Wedding Feast 168

CHAPTER 8

JOHN PAUL HEIL

Final Parables in the Eschatological Discourse in Matthew 24–25 177

1. Matthew 24:23–28: Comparison of Lightning with the Coming of the Son of Man 181
  2. Matthew 24:29–35: Knowing Summer Is Near
Compared with Knowing the Son of Man Is Near 183
  3. Matthew 24:36–41: The Coming of the Flood
Compared with the Coming of the Son of Man 187
  4. Matthew 24:42–44: Readiness for a Thief
Compared to Readiness for the Son of Man 188
  5. Matthew 24:45–51: Parable Comparing a Servant
Who is Faithful and Wise or Wicked 190
  6. Matthew 25:1–13: Parable of the Reign of the Heavens
Comparing Wise and Foolish Maidens 193
  7. Matthew 25:14–30: Parable Comparing Servants
Who Are Given Talents by Their Lord 196
  8. Matthew 25:31–46: Parable of Judgment
Comparing the Righteous and the Unrighteous 200
- Conclusion 208

CHAPTER 9

WARREN CARTER

Conclusion 210

BIBLIOGRAPHY 215

INDEX OF ANCIENT SOURCES 235

INDEX OF NAMES 251