

Table of Contents

7	Introduction	57	Assignments
11	Scores, Instructions, Prompts and Briefs: The Assignment as Artwork Emiel Heijnen and Melissa Bremmer	58	Go Public
23	Bridging Contradictions: The Design of Wicked Arts Assignments Melissa Bremmer and Emiel Heijnen	78	Narrate
33	Interviews	102	Remix
35	'No assignment is hopeless to me.' Jorge Lucero	120	Explore Nature
39	'An intriguing prompt can lead to a terrible learning experience.' Nina Paim	132	Engage
43	'A good assignment makes you smile, because it has something special.' Erik Schrooten	150	Soul Searching
47	'I approach assignments as the "not yet known in advance".' Stephanie Springgay	174	Make Some Noise
51	'Education can also be an artistic medium.' Pavèl van Houten	190	Localize
		212	Build &amp; Move
		226	Keep in Time
		242	Hack
		264	Breaking Boundaries
		279	Too Wicked to Handle
		289	Index of Assignment Makers
		299	Index of Other Names
		302	Acknowledgements and Biographies
		304	Colophon