

Contents

PREFACE	viii
1. Toward Bluer Skies: Reducing the Threat Level and Resurrecting Feminist Studies of Women in Luke	1
2. Can We Go On Together with Suspicious Minds? Doubt and Trust as Both Sides of the Hermeneutical “Coin” (Luke 15:8-10)	24
3. A Woman’s Right to Choose? Mother Mary as Spirited Agent and Actor (Luke 1–2)	55
4. The Quest for the Historical Joanna: Follower of Jesus, Friend of Mary Magdalene, and Wife of Herod’s Official (Luke 8:1-3; 24:10)	101
5. A Testy Hostess and Her Lazy Sister? Martha, Mary, and the Household Rivals Type-Scene (Luke 10:38-42)	145
6. A Hungry Widow, Spicy Queen, and Salty Wife: “Foreign” Biblical Models of Warning and Judgment (Luke 4:25-26; 11:31; 17:32)	190
7. The Savvy Widow’s Might: Fighting for Justice in an Unjust World (Luke 18:1-8)	264
8. A Capable Woman, Who Can Find? We Have Found Some in Luke!	315
INDEX	342
	vii