

CONTENTS

Abbreviations	7
An Introduction to the Johannine Writings R. Alan Culpepper	9

Part I

JOHN

Barnabas Lindars, SSF

Commentaries on John	30
1. Orientation	32
2. The Evangelist and the Gospel	40
3. The Readers of the Gospel	62
4. Understanding John	80
5. Application	103

Part II

THE JOHANNINE EPISTLES

Ruth B. Edwards

Commentaries and General Works on 1–3 John	110
1. Why Study the Johannine Epistles?	112
2. 2 and 3 John: Form, Style and Content	122
3. 1 John: Form, Style, Sources and Background	132
4. Who Wrote the Johannines and When?	144
5. Christology and the 'Opponents'	153
6. 1 John: Leading Theological Ideas	163
7. God's Love and the Human Response	174
8. Sin, Forgiveness, Judgment and Eschatology	184
9. Conclusions	195

Part III

REVELATION

John M. Court

Commentaries on and Studies of the Book of Revelation	206
1. Introduction: Revelation Revisited	208
2. Reading Revelation by Themes	220
3. What Kind of Book? The Literary Character of the Book of Revelation	269
4. From What Setting? The Historical and Social Context of Revelation's Community	283
5. The Abiding Theological Values and Doctrines of Revelation	296
Index of References	308
Index of Authors	321