

CONTENTS

---

Foreword

by Sr. M. Manuela Randerath CPS, Superior General 9

- 1 THE FOUNDER FASHIONED BY GOD 11
God calls/Religious life - The Trappist ideal - At Mariawald - God calls again/Mariastern - God calls a third time/Africa - The 'Abbey' that never was - Not wanted - Mariannahill.
- 2 RED FOR PRECIOUS BLOOD 31
Getting settled - Beginning evangelization of the Zulu - The Catholic family - First critics - Baptisms at Mariannahill - The girls' question - Genesis of the Red Sisters - A unique vocation - All or nothing - Welcome to Mariannahill - Women in a Trappist Monastery - Red princesses - The prophecy - Sing to the Lord, all you nations - Not visions but vigour.
- 3 SISTERS IN ACTION 67
Sisters and pupils - Befriending the poor - The Rule of 1886 - Branching out - Progress in education - "Everyone's harnessed" - Further consolidation of the Red Sisters - Sisters for the stations.
- 4 SIDE BY SIDE WITH THE TRAPPISTS 101
Episcopal support - New challenges - Sister Paula - On-going formation - Spirit of a Red Sister - Sunday fun - A conflict of priorities - A place in the Church - Pastoral care - Priests for the Mariannahill Missions - The Monastery Council - First local postulants - The rule of 1888 - Early devotional life - The Sacred Heart and Mariannahill - Education/A question of priorities - Abbot Francis/25 years a Trappist - More sisters to the stations.

- 5 WINNING YOUNG AND OLD FOR CHRIST 159
 Kirchherten - Education for African youth - The public replies - Abbot Francis replies - Sisters and pupils - Nonenga/Veronica - Trouble at Kirchherten - Growing opposition - Unrest within - Reasons for hope - Continued struggle for the Mariannahill schools - Rule and apostolate - First teacher training - Continued growth.
- 6 THE SEED TAKES ROOT IN AFFLICTION 197
 Mounting unrest - The sisters defend their founder - The Bishop replies - The founder's worries - On the defensive - More competence for the Red Sisters - A ray of happiness - Monastery or Mission - The rectors speak up - Founder and Bishop clash.
- 7 THE TREE WEATHERS THE STORM 233
 A memorable convention - Mariannahill strengthened in Europe - The founder at Kirchherten - Helden Panningen - The missions at stake - Welcome home - The visitation of 1892 - The mammoth task - Conflict of conscience and competence - Stalemate and withdrawal - Mounting anxieties - Request for disciplinary action - Testing time - The visitation concluded - The Mission Council of 1892 - The unresolved problem.
- 8 FATEFUL DECISIONS 271
 The crisis - Seeking solutions - Working climate disturbed - The school issue of 1892 - The Sisters Question - Progressive views - Bishop Jolivet at a loss - The fateful chapter of 1892 - Suspension - Finding an administrator - The suspension takes effect - Abbot Strunk's role - The Administrator - Rash judgement - The founder's reaction.
- 9 IN SEARCH OF SOLUTIONS 313
 Hard times ahead - The administrator surrenders - The knotty question - Abbot Francis resigns - The search for a successor - A weak moment - A father's care - Final farewell - A father's concern - The silent battle - A new competence - Like Job - Third Order? - Simply a fad? - Fr. Amandus/abbot - The new abbot - Abbot Francis and affiliation.

- 10 THE STRUGGLE FOR IDENTITY 351
 A domicile for the founder - Trappist customs at the convent - Sister Paula and affiliation - Against the stream - Bishop Jolivet and affiliation - The elusive Sisters Question - Sister Natalia Weindl - Rigour replaces vigour - Disillusionment - The founder at Emaus - Expansion under Abbot Amandus - Reaction - Abbot Amandus and Sister Paula - More numbers than work - The Mariathal conference of 1899 - Apostolic pride - Death of Abbot Amandus - The Red Sisters in 1900.
- 11 RECOURSE TO ROME 389
 The Sisters Question unsolved - For a great price - "The sisters question is my question" - Personal sanctity - The apostolate of the Red Sisters - What Propaganda Fide still needs to know - Further delay - Reaction and revival - The Mariathal conference of 1900 - Abbot Francis and his successors/a comparison.
- 12 SEPARATION 415
 The third abbot of Mariannahill - The founder 50 years ordained - A hopeful start - A new novitiate - Africa re-visited - The valiant woman - The struggle continues - Separation hurts - Progress at Emaus - Separation inevitable - The turning point - Founder and co-foundress - A reluctant messiah - Daughter of the revolution - Separation in sight - The sisters' conference of 1903 - The necessary evil/money - The deal that had to fail - "I'll die fighting" - 'Overwhelmed' - The greater trust - Silence with consequences - "I must speak."
- 13 THE ORIGINAL PURPOSE RECALLED 473
 Excellent chances missed - The original purpose recalled - The founder and the School Question - Apostolate discussed further - All-round sisters - The devil is not tired - The red salvation army - Your penance is your work - Your eight beatitudes.
- 14 PAPAL APPROBATION AND AUTONOMY 497
 The founder's last will - The founder betrayed - Homework after the conference - Recourse to Rome - Constitutions revised/the abbot resigns - Sister

Paula/the founder's choice - Administrator Obrecht - Administrator and founder - Sisters' conference, Mariannahill, 1905 - Old grievances settled - The crucial phase - Trouble in the Congo - Destination Emaus - Independence and its price.

15	THE TREE STANDS	543
	Abbot Edmond's legacy - A mother finds the lost - The hard struggle for acceptance - Mardi gras in Rome - Anything but not red - "We saw a saint" - Seed and soil - Red Sisters for China - The founder dies - The prayerful woman.
16	CONSOLIDATION AND EXPANSION	571
	The founder's legacy - First German foundation - Upgrading for teachers - Sisters in East Africa - God cares - The woman and mother - World War One - The post-war years - Painful transitions - Brighter prospects - Expansion in Germany - The 1929 contract - Mission accomplished - The tree rooted to stand.
17	FACING TODAY'S CHALLENGE	609
	The congregation since 1930/A summary - Local congregations.
APPENDICES
1	Administration of the CPS Congregation, 1886-1990	619
2	Abbot Francis Pfanner removed from office, 1891-94	623
3	The CPS Constitutions, 1885-1989	627
4	From Trappist Order to separate Mission Congregation	630
5	Main dates of South African history, 1806-1910	632
6	Vows in the CPS Congregation, 1886-1990	634
	ALPHABETICAL INDEX	636
	SOURCES	643
	ILLUSTRATIONS	645

<><><><>