

CONTENTS

Foreword	xi
I THE ENIGMA OF ROMANS	1
1. Romans as a Letter	6
2. The Destination of Romans	11
II PAUL'S CIRCUMSTANCES	22
1. The Unity of Romans	25
2. Paul's Past Struggles	29
3. The Collection and Paul's Visit to Jerusalem	37
4. Paul's Present Situation	41
III THE CIRCUMSTANCES OF THE ROMAN CHURCH	44
1. A Divided Church?	45
2. Judaizing Christianity at Rome	50
3. Claudius' Expulsion of the Jews	54
4. The Evidence of Chapters 13 -15	59
IV THE INTERRELATIONSHIP OF PAUL'S CIRCUMSTANCES AND THE ROMAN CHURCH'S	66
1. Parakalō	67
2. The Roman Christians' Relationship to the Collection	70
3. Romans 12.1ff and Paul's Visit to Rome	75
4. Romans 9.1 -11.36 in Its Context	87
V THE ARGUMENT OF ROMANS 1-11 IN ITS CONTEXT	92
1. The Opening Greeting (Rom 1.1-7)	93
2. Paul's Stated Purposes in Writing Romans	97

3. The Forthcoming Visit to Rome and the Body of the Letter	102
4. The 'Righteousness of God'	108
5. The Structure of the Argument of Romans 1-11	123
VI CONCLUSIONS	140
Notes	143
Abbreviations	154
Select Bibliography	155
Index of New Testament Passages Cited	166