

Contents

Preface	vi
Using this Guide	vii
Further Reading	ix
Map: The Eastern Mediterranean in New Testament Times	x
Introduction: The Letter and its Writer	1
1.1–5: Greeting	4
1.6–10: Paul’s Reason for Writing	10
1.11–24: How Paul became an Apostle	13
Special Note A: Grace	17
2.1–10: Paul’s Agreement with the Jerusalem Apostles	21
2.11–21: A Conflict between Peter and Paul	27
Special Note B: ‘Faith’ according to Paul	33
3.1–5: The Galatians’ Earlier Experience	37
3.6–9: God Gave the Promise before He Gave the Law	40
Special Note C: Righteousness and Justification	42
3.10–14: The Contrast between Law and Redemption	46
3.15–22: The Law cannot make the Promise Invalid	51
Special Note D: The Law	56
3.23–4.7: Slaves and Children	60
4.8–20: Paul’s Concern for the Galatians	66
4.21–5.1: Children of the Slave and Children of the Free Woman	71
5.1–15: Christian Freedom	74
5.16–26: The Works of the Flesh and the Fruit of the Spirit	79
6.1–10: The Law of Christ	85
6.11–18: Ending	88
Postscript	92
Key to Study Suggestions	96
Index	100