

TABLE OF CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.....	i
NOTE ON SOURCES AND CITATIONS	iii
INTRODUCTION	1
I. History of Research.....	2
A. Analyses of Purpose without Rhetorical Criticism	2
1. No Discernible Purpose	2
2. One Letter, Multiple Purposes	3
3. Multiple Letters, Multiple Purposes.....	5
4. One Letter, One Purpose	8
5. Conclusions to This Point.....	12
B. Analysis of Purpose Using Rhetorical Criticism.....	14
1. Philippians as a Formal or Informal Letter	14
2. Philippians as Rhetoric	17
a. First Attempts Employing Rhetorical Criticism.....	17
b. Philippians as a Formal Rhetorical Argument:
Duane F. Watson's Analysis.....	20
C. Final Observations and Conclusions	22
II. Thesis	23
A. 1:27-30 Establishes the Purpose of the Argument.....	23
B. The "Heavenly Citizenship" Motif is the Hermeneutical Key	25
III. Task and Method.....	29
CHAPTER ONE: THE POLITICAL CHARACTER OF PHILIPPIANS
1:27-30.....	35
I. General Historical and Philosophical Background to
Philippians 1:27-30.....	36

A. Historical Background	36
B. Philosophical Backdrop: Topos of Militia Spiritualis.....	38
II. The Primary Theme Introduced: “Only exercise your citizenship worthily of the Gospel of Christ” (1:27a).....	42
A. “Exercise your citizenship worthily” (ἀξίως πολιτεύεσθε).....	42
B. “. . . of the Gospel of Christ”	49
C. Conclusions	52
III. The Primary Theme Focused for the Philippians: The Call to Stand Firm (1:27c-28).....	53
A. “Stand Firm in One Spirit”	54
B. Standing Firm by Contending for the Faith in Unity (1:27d)	60
1. “Contending Together” in Unity.....	60
2. “. . . for the Faith of the Gospel”.....	62
C. Standing Firm by Not Being Intimidated by Adversaries (1:28a) .	66
1. “Not Being Intimidated”	66
2. “. . . by (Your) Adversaries”	69
IV. The Reason to Stand Firm: Graced by God to Suffer for Christ (1:29-30).....	70
A. Citizens Should Expect to Suffer for Their Loyalty (1:29)	71
B. The “Battle” (Ἀγών) On Behalf of Christ (1:30).....	77
V. Conclusions.....	81
 CHAPTER TWO: COMPLEMENTARY THEMES IN PHILIPPIANS	83
I. Paul and the Philippians’ ΚΟΙΝΩΝΙΑ Relationship	84
A. Background: Two Leading Interpretations of Paul’s Use of Κοινωνία in Philippians.....	85
1. Κοινωνία as a “Contractual” Relationship (Societas) with the Philippians (Sampley).....	86
2. Κοινωνία as an Expression of Friendship (White, Stowers).....	88
B. The Political Context for Paul’s Use of Κοινωνία in Philippians	91
1. Κοινωνία as a Political Concept.....	91
a. Κοινωνία: Shared Relationship to God through

Christ and the Gospel.....	93
b. Κοινωνία: Common Mission Rooted in the Gospel.....	94
c. Conclusions.....	95
2. Paul's Rhetorical Use of the Κοινωνία Relationship	96
C. Partnership with Paul Is Based on Christian Identity in All His Letters.....	98
D. Paul's Role as Exhorter, Limited Authority Figure and Model	100
E. Summary.....	104
II. Unity As a Means to and Component Part of Steadfastness	105
A. Paul's Priority of the Gospel over Disunity (1:12-18)	107
B. Unity as a Component of Steadfastness (1:27)	107
C. Steadfast Devotion to Christ Implies Unity (2:1-18).....	109
D. Specific Appeal for Unity Linked to Steadfastness (4:2-3).....	115
E. Conclusion.....	117
III. Joy As a Motivation and Means to Steadfastness	117
A. Joy and Steadfastness in the Topos of the Militia Spiritualis.....	118
B. Paul's Grounds His Joy in His Christian Identity.....	120
C. The Completion of Paul's Joy Depends on the Philippians' Unity and Steadfastness	121
D. Joy Is for Those Who Remain Steadfast.....	122
E. Conclusions	123
CHAPTER THREE: RHETORICAL USE OF EXAMPLES.....	125
I. Introduction: On the Value of Examples in Education and Rhetoric	125
II. Imitable Role Models and Examples in Philippians.....	128
A. Paul as Model	129
B. Christ's Character and Experience as Example	133
1. Christ and the Christ-hymn as Example in Paul's Argument	134
2. Christ's "Example" as Indicative as well as Imperative.....	135
3. The Example of Vindication and Reward from God	138
4. Full Rhetorical Function of 2:5-11: To Promote Steadfastness	139

C. Timothy and Epaphroditus Exemplify Steadfast Devotion to Christ	140
D. Other Imitable Examples in the Community	146
E. Paul's Use of Models As Basic to His Parenthesis	147
III. Negative Examples and Warnings: Philippians Three and Theological Threats to the Community	149
A. Steadfastness in Christ is the Only "Safe" Option	151
B. The Polarization of Theological Camps and Positions	152
1. 3:1-11	152
2. 3:15-21	153
3. The Rhetorical Strategy behind the Political Language of 3:15-21	153
C. Conclusions	157
 CHAPTER FOUR: COMPOSITIONAL ANALYSIS OF PHILIPPIANS.....	159
I. The Epistolary Prescript (1:1-2)	161
II. Introduction: Affirmation of Corporate Identity and the Priority of the Gospel (Exordium, 1:3-26)	163
A. Christian Identity: Relational, Purposeful, Hopeful, Growing (1:3-11)	164
1. The Introduction of Interrelated Themes	164
2. Interrelated Themes: Purposeful Relationships	166
3. 1:3-11 Is Linked to the Proposition Statement	170
4. Summation	171
B. Paul's Devotion to the Gospel Ministry (The Exordium Extended, 1:12-26)	172
1. Paul Discerns What is Best in the Midst of Difficulties (1:12-18a)	174
2. Paul Discerns What is Best in Relation to the Philippians (1:18b-26)	175
3. Paul Underscores the Network of Valued Relationships	176
4. Conclusions	178
III. Presentation of Paul's Major Appeal (Narratio: Propositio and Ratio, 1:27-30)	179

IV. The Development of the Argument with Examples (Probatio, 2:1-3:21).....	182
A. Steadfastness Defined as Unity and Obedience (2:1-18) (The First Two Developments of the Proposition)	183
1. The First Development of the Proposition: Adopt Christ's Mind-Set (2:1-11).....	184
2. The Second Development of the Proposition: Continue to Obey (2:12-18).....	185
3. Conclusions on 2:1-18.....	190
B. Exemplification of Steadfast Devotion to Christ and the Gospel Ministry (A Digressio, 2:19-30).....	191
C. The Third Development of the Proposition: A Call to Reject False Gospels and Imitate Paul's Steadfast Faith (3:1-21)	192
1. 3:1 as a Transition Verse	194
2. The Translation of βλέπετε and the Tone Shift of 3:2	196
3. Christian Politico-Religious Identity Rooted in Christ, the Savior from Heaven.....	197
4. Summation and Conclusions.....	199
V. The Epilogue: Final Appeals and Applications (Peroratio with Epistolary Closing, 4:1-23).....	201
A. 4:1 as a Key Indicator of Paul's Purpose and Method	202
1. 4:1 as a Conclusion to the Argument.....	202
2. The Resumptive Use of οὕτως.....	203
3. Paul's Warm, Intimate Language Serves His Rhetorical Goals	204
4. The Commander's Crown as a Sign of Victory	206
5. Steadfastness and The Philippians' Corporate Identity "in the Lord".....	207
B. 4:2-23 as an Extended Epilogue in Rhetorical Terms	209
1. 4:2-9	209
2. 4:10-20	211
a. The Rhetorical Function of the Change in Tone and Movement of 4:10-20.....	212

b. 4:10-20 as an Affirmation of the Philippians'
Faithfulness.....	213
c. 4:10-20 as an Affirmation of God's Sufficiency	214
d. Conclusions on 4:10-20.....	215
3. 4:21-23	217
C. Summation	217
CONCLUSION	219
I. Paul States the Proposition in Political and Military Terms	220
Focusing on Steadfastness (1:27-30).....	220
II. Paul Emphasizes Corporate Identity, Relationships and Examples to Promote Steadfastness	222
III. The Structure of the Letter and Argument Confirm the Coherence of Philippians and the Priority of Promoting Steadfastness.....	224
APPENDIX: STEADFASTNESS AS A THEOLOGY OF PERSEVERANCE.....	229
I. The Assumed Gospel.....	230
II. Paul's Concern to Promote Steadfastness as a Necessity	231
III. Paul's Emphasis on Steadfastness Outside Philippians	233
IV. Conclusion.....	233
BIBLIOGRAPHY	235
I. Ancient Sources Cited: Texts, Editions, Translations.....	235
II. Secondary Sources: Philippians Related	238
III. Secondary Sources: General	246
INDICES.....	253
I. Passages Cited.....	253
A. Old Testament.....	253
B. Apocrypha, Old Testament Pseudepigrapha, Other Jewish Writings	253
C. New Testament	253
D. Greek and Latin Texts.....	261
II. Modern Authors Cited.....	265