

Contents

Introduction	ix
Part One: The Imperial Situation and the Spiral of Violence	i
1. The Imperial Situation of Palestinian Jewish Society	3
Domination by Foreign Empires	5
Subordination and Crisis for the Subject Society	9
Popular Resistance and Renewal	15
2. The Politics of Violence	20
Toward an Adequate Concept of Violence	20
The Spiral of Violence in Jewish Palestine	28
Institutionalized Injustice	29
Protest and Resistance	33
Repression	43
Revolt	49
Part Two: Popular Jewish Nonviolent Resistance	59
3. From Rebellion to Tax-Resistance: Protests by Groups of Intellectuals	61
The Heritage of Active Resistance by Intellectuals	62
Torah Scholars and Herod's Golden Eagle	71
The Fourth Philosophy and Roman Tribute	77
4. Popular Mass Protests	90
The Jerusalem Crowd	90
Popular Protests	99
Protests over the Roman Army Standards, the Aqueduct, and the Torah Scroll	99
The Motive of Official Protests	108
Protest over Gaius's Statue	110
Summary Reflections	116

5. Apocalyptic Orientation and Historical Action	121
The Ideal of Zeal: Modern Reconstruction vs. Historical Reality	121
Apocalyptic Orientation and Motivation	129
Toward a Less Doctrinal and More Concrete Approach	131
The Historical Orientation and Characteristics of Palestinian Jewish Apocalyptic Literature	133
Apocalyptic Perspective and Motivation in Jewish Resistance	140
The Importance of Apocalypticism in the Imperial Situation	143
Part Three: Jesus and Nonviolent Social Revolution	147
6. Abandoning The Unhistorical Quest for an Apolitical Jesus	149
Toward a More Comprehensive and Concrete Approach	149
Of Foils and False Starts	149
Modern Assumptions vs. Historical Realities	151
The Content and Orientation of the Gospel Tradition	156
Not Peace but Conflict	156
Jesus and the Revolutionary Perspective of Jewish Apocalypticism	157
The Charges Against Jesus Not Totally False	160
Procedure	164
7. The Kingdom of God and the Renewal of Israel	167
The Kingdom of God: Social and Certain	167
The Kingdom of God Is for People	167
The Certainty of Renewal, Vindication, and Judgment	172
The Presence of the Kingdom	178
Banqueting: Joys of the Kingdom Present	178
Healings and Forgiveness	181
Exorcisms and God's Defeat of Demonic Forces	184
The Rule of God and the Society of God	190
The Renewal of Israel	193
To the Lost Sheep of the House of Israel	194

Repentance and Judgment	195
The Twelve Disciples and the Twelve Tribes of Israel	199
8. The Renewal of Local Community, I: Egalitarian Social Relations	209
Jesus' Following: Not Particular Groups but Local Communities	209
Tax Collectors	212
Sinners	217
Prostitutes	223
Beggars, Cripples, and the Poor	224
Wandering Charismatics	228
Egalitarian Familial Community	231
Nonpatriarchal Social Relations	232
Community without Hierarchy	240
9. The Renewal of Local Community, II: Social-Economic Cooperation and Autonomy	246
Forgive Us Our Debts	246
Concern for the Alleviation of Poverty	248
Mutual Forgiveness and Cancellation of Debts	251
Love Your Enemies: Local Cooperation	255
Seeking the Kingdom and Release from Anxieties	256
Nondefensive Sharing and Mutual Assistance	259
Reconciliation and Autonomy	273
Working Out Concrete Conflicts While Avoiding the Courts	273
Conflict and Reconciliation in the Local Community	275
"The Sons Are Free": The Half-shekel Temple Tax	279
10. Judgment of the Ruling Institutions	285
Prophecy and Demonstration Against the Temple	286
Problematic Assumptions About the Temple	286
Jesus' Sayings against the Temple	292
Jesus' Prophetic Demonstration in the Temple	297

Ruling Priests and Ruling City	300
Jesus' Lament over Jerusalem	300
Jesus' Prophetic Parable against the High Priests	304
The Things That Are Caesar's And The Things That Are God's	306
Conclusion: Jesus and Social Revolution	318
Abbreviations	327
Notes	328
Index	349