

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction	1
Chapter One: A First-Century Palestinian Passover	5
A. Sources and Methodology	5
B. The Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread in the Hebrew Bible	12
C. The First-Century Celebration of Passover	14
1. Preparation for Celebration of Passover	14
2. The Passover Meal	26
3. Purpose and Meaning of the Passover Celebration	40
a. The Passover as Pointing to a Past Redemptive Event	40
i. Passover as Memorial of Exodus	40
ii. Passover and Covenant	42
iii. The Redemptive Quality of the Original Passover Offerings	43
iv. Passover and the Binding of Isaac	46
b. Passover as Pointing to the Eschatological Redemptive Event	48
D. Endnotes to Chapter One	51

Chapter Two: A Literary-Critical Analysis of the New Testament Sources	59
A. The Literary Relationships Between the Four Sources	59
1. A Comparison of the Four Accounts	59
2. The Literary Relationship Between Matthew and Mark	65
3. The Literary Relationship Between Luke and Mark and Luke and 1 Corinthians	66
B. The Compositeness of the Markan and Lukan Narratives of the Last Supper	80
1. The Markan Narrative of the Last Supper	81
2. The Lukan Narrative of the Last Supper	87
C. Endnotes to Chapter Two	90
Chapter Three: A Tradition-Historical Analysis of Last Supper Narratives	99
A. The Paschal Context of the Words of Institution	99
B. The Tradition-Historical Relation of Luke 22:15-18 and Luke 22:19-20	108
C. The Relative Tradition-Historical Priority of the Three Versions of the Words of Institution	110
1. Criteria for Determining Originality	110
2. The Introduction to the Word Over the Bread	113
3. The Word Over the Bread	116
4. The Introduction to the Word Over the Cup	117
5. The Word Over the Cup	120

6. The Command to Repeat	123
7. Conclusion	125
D. Endnotes to Chapter Three	126
Chapter Four: A Historical Reconstruction of the
Last Supper	147
A. Introduction	147
B. The Outside of the Event	148
C. The Inside of the Event	152
D. The Sacramental Nature of Jesus' Words and Deeds	158
E. Objections to the Authenticity of the Words of Institution Considered	165
F. Endnotes to Chapter Four	169
Appendix A: The Huper-Phrase	185
Appendix B: The Chronology of the Last Supper	189
Appendix C: Dating Jesus' Crucifixion	215
Modern Author Index	219