

Contents

Series Foreword	ix
Abbreviations	xiii
Preface	xv
1. The Father Figure	1
The Problem
The Task
Presuppositions of the Method
Symbol and History
2. God the Father in Jesus' Religious Heritage	20
Indirect Symbolization
Direct Symbolization
3. God the Father in the Teaching of Jesus	52
The Carpenter's Son: Jesus and the Patriarchy
God's Son: Jesus and the Divine Father
4. God the Father in the Earliest Traditions about Jesus	82
Christians as Adopted Members of God's Family:
The Apostle Paul
The Church as the United Family of God: Matthew
The Christian Community United as the Father and the Son Are United: The Fourth Gospel
The "Promise to the Fathers": Luke-Acts
5. Summary and Conclusion	100

vii

An Excursus on Method: Symbol and History in Modern Hermeneutics, (with Special Reference to the Thought of Paul Ricoeur and Wolfhart Pannenberg)	105
The Recent Hermeneutical Discussion
Ricoeur on Symbols and History
Pannenberg on History and Hermeneutics
Convergences Between the Thought of Pannenberg and Ricoeur
Biblical Symbols as Translators of History
Indexes	123