

CONTENTS

	Page
AUTHOR'S FOREWORD	5
TRANSLATOR'S FOREWORD	7
INTRODUCTION	II

FIRST PART

GENERAL STUDY OF THE SACRAMENTS

I. THE MEANING OF THE TERM	27
II. THE RELATION BETWEEN THE WORD AND THE SACRAMENTS
THE CONSTITUTIVE ELEMENTS OF THE SACRAMENTS
A. Priority of the Word	34
B. Points of Resemblance between the Word and the Sacraments	35
C. The Efficacy of the Sacraments	44
D. Points of Dissimilarity between the Word and the Sacraments	55

SECOND PART

THE COVENANT OF GRACE

Preliminary Remarks	63
I. THE OBJECTIVE ASPECTS OF THE COVENANT OF GRACE
A. The Covenant in History	65
B. The Promises and Characteristics of the Covenant	72
C. The Sacraments of the Covenant : Comparison of the Sacraments of the Old and New Testaments	80
D. The Church in the Covenant	95
II. THE SUBJECTIVE, INDIVIDUAL, AND ECCLESIASTICAL ASPECTS OF THE COVENANT OF GRACE
THE BENEFICIARIES OF THE COVENANT :
A. To Whom is the Covenant of Grace Offered ? .	99

	Page
B. The Covenant of Grace, Place of Vocation and Election	101
c. The Children of the Covenant	107
D. Children in the Church	121
E. The Unconverted in the Covenant and in the Church	124

THIRD PART

BAPTISM: SACRAMENT OF THE COVENANT OF GRACE

Preliminary Remarks	139
I. THE BAPTISM OF ADULTS AND PROSELYTES
WHAT IS THE MEANING AND SIGNIFICANCE FOR ADULTS OF THE BAPTISM THEY HAVE RECEIVED?
A. Baptism as a Sign and Seal	143
B. Baptism as a Means of Grace	162
c. The Necessity of Baptism	178
D. The Subjective Aspects of Baptism	180
E. On What Conditions can Baptism be Administered to Adults?	183
II. THE BAPTISM OF CHILDREN
A. The Silence of the New Testament	187
B. The Children of Believers are born within the Covenant of Grace	191
c. The Covenant is the Sole Basis of Infant Baptism	198
D. The Objectivity of Infant Baptism	203
E. Children are Legitimately Baptized, without Faith or Repentance because they belong to the Covenant	209
F. How do Doctrine and Faith Precede Baptism?	218
G. Baptism and Regeneration	220
H. Baptism a Means of Grace for the Child	223
I. Responsibility of Church, Parents, and Children	229
CONCLUSION	246