

Contents

Acknowledgements	7
Introduction How to use this book	8
Chapter 1 Introducing art history
What do art historians do? The object of art history	11
What is 'art'? / A working definition of art / What is 'history'?
Why is art history important?	16
Art history and related disciplines	19
Art criticism / Sociology / Anthropology / Aesthetics /
Cultural studies / Visual culture studies / Connoisseurship
Art history's toolbox: formal and contextual analysis	22
Museum accession numbers
■ Reading captions for information	23
Conclusion	26
Chapter 2 Formal analysis
Formal analysis	27
Formal elements	28
Colour / Line / Space and mass / Scale / Composition
Two-dimensional art: painting, graphic arts, photography	31
Sculpture	35
■ Wölfflin and formal analysis	36
Architecture	40
Installation art	42
Performance and video art	43
Digital art	46
Textile and decorative arts	48
■ Patrick Heron analyzes a painting by Matisse	51
Conclusion	51
Chapter 3 Contextual analysis
Art and context	52
Contextual questions	53
Art out of context? Museums and art history	56
A brief history of museums / Museums and the experience of art

■ Sarah Symmons analyzes a print by Goya	57
The process of interpretation: confronting your assumptions	61
The challenges of cross-cultural interpretation / The challenges of historical interpretation / Historical interpretation in practice
■ Is African art anonymous?	65
Art and its controversies	69
Style and meaning	71
Conclusion	73
 Chapter 4 Writing art history essays and papers
Art historical arguments: opinion vs. interpretation	74
Formal analysis essays	76
Taking notes / Structuring your essay / The comparison essay
Research papers	83
Developing a topic and starting your research / Keeping notes
Resources for research	91
Books / Periodicals / Websites / Reference works
■ How many sources should I use?	91
Critical moments in art history writing	97
Developing a thesis / Writing an introductory paragraph / Sustaining the argument / Dealing with intentions / The conclusion / Editing
■ If you experience writer's block	107
Citations and bibliographies	108
MLA citations / Chicago citations / Bibliography or Works Cited / Plagiarism's grey zone
Writing style	113
Common stylistic pitfalls of art history writing / Finding a voice
Putting together those illustrations	116
Conclusion	117
 Chapter 5 Navigating art history examinations
Slide identifications and short-answer questions	118
Why are slide identifications important? / How to succeed at slide identifications / Three-step slide memorization / Memory aids / Unknowns
■ Test-taking strategies for art history exams	126

Art history essays	128
Studying for essay tests / Types of essay question
Effective note-taking	140
Taking good notes during lectures / Developing a consistent short hand / Taking notes on readings
■ Participation – why bother?	142
Conclusion	143
 Chapter 6 · Art history's own history
Ancient world	144
■ Excerpt from Pliny's Natural History	145
Middle Ages	146
Renaissance	147
■ Excerpt from Vasari's Lives of the Artists	148
Seventeenth-century writers on art	150
■ Félibien in conversation with Poussin	151
■ Winckelmann on the Laocoön	153
Age of Enlightenment	154
The nineteenth century: foundations of modern art history	155
Twentieth-century formalists, iconographers and social historians	158
After 1970: the 'new' art history	160
■ The feminist art history revolution	163
Do other cultures practise art history?	165
China / West Africa
■ Early art history in China	166
Conclusion	169
 Glossary	170
Bibliography	172
Table of parallel illustrations in art history surveys	178
Index	180
Picture credits	184