

Contents

Acknowledgments ix

Introduction: A New Venue for Comparative Religious Ethics 1

PART 1 COMPARATIVE RELIGIOUS ETHICS AND INTERRELIGIOUS DIALOGUE

- 1 Four Paradigms in Teaching
Comparative Religious Ethics, Sumner B. Twiss 11
- 2 Scholarship and Citizenship: Comparative Religious
Ethicists as Public Intellectuals, Bruce Grelle 34
- 3 Reckoning with Religious Difference: Models of Interreligious Moral Dialogue, Kate McCarthy 73
- 4 A Global Ethic in the Light of Comparative
Religious Ethics, Sallie King 118
- 5 Commentary on Part One, Marcus Braybrooke 141

PART 2 RELIGIOUS PERSPECTIVES IN DIALOGUE ON GLOBAL MORAL ISSUES

- 6 Religion and Human Rights: A Comparative Perspective,
Sumner B. Twiss 155
- 7 The Problem of Distributive Justice in World Religions,
James F. Smurl 176
- 8 “Teachers of Reality”: Voices of Resistance and Reconstruction, June O’Connor 197
- 9 Piety, Politics, and the Limits Set by God: Implications of Islamic Political Thought for Christian Theology, John Kelsay 217

10	Religions and the Ethics of International Business, Ronald M. Green	237
11	Environmental Ethics in Interreligious Perspective, Kusumita P. Pedersen	253
12	From Genocide to Global Ethics by Way of Storytelling, Darrell J. Fasching	291
13	Commentary on Part Two, Dennis P. McCann	322
	About the Editors and Contributors	335
	Index	337