

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction	xi
1. The “Backlash” and the Future of Child Protection Advocacy: Insights From the Study of Social Issues	1
DAVID FINKELHOR
The Social Movement Around Child Abuse	2
The Outlook for the Child Protection Movement	4
Opposition Forces: Interests and Countermovements	6
Anatomy of the Backlash	7
The Prospects for the Backlash	11
Future Developments	14
2. Definition and Origins of the Backlash Against Child Protection	17
JOHN E. B. MYERS
Child Protection Has Always Been Criticized	18
Sources of the Backlash	19
Conclusion	30
3. The Backlash From the Perspective of a County Child Protective Services Administrator	31
SYLVIA PIZZINI
Background: The Child Protective Services Challenge	31

Landmarks in National Policy Regarding Child Abuse and Neglect	32
Value Conflicts and Inconsistencies in the National Policy Framework of Child Protection	35
The Bureaucratic Organization	37
Outcomes of CPS Services	39
Manifestations of the Backlash From the Perspective of a County CPS Administrator	42
4. The Perspective From Victims of Child Abuse Laws (VOCAL)	47
LESLEY WIMBERLY
The Law	50
Child Protective Services (CPS)	52
The Families	53
Foster Care	54
Society: The Impact of Imbalance	56
Conclusion	58
5. Backlash and Child Protective Services From the Perspective of State CPS Administrators	60
CHARLES WILSON and SUSAN CAYLOR STEPPE
Common Elements in CPS Programs	61
Criticisms of CPS	62
Child Protection Advocates' Response to the Backlash	67
Recommendations	67
6. The Backlash in Europe: Real Anxiety or Mass Hysteria in the Netherlands? A Preliminary Study of the Oude Pekela Crisis	70
KAREL PYCK
The Oude Pekela Case	72
A Chronology of the Oude Pekela Case	75
The Lessons of Oude Pekela	84
7. The Literature of the Backlash	86
JOHN E. B. MYERS
Overarching Themes of Backlash Literature	89

Rhetorical Devices in Backlash Literature	100
Responding to the Backlash Literature	101
Conclusion	103
8. Responding to the Backlash: Recommendations	104
JOHN E. B. MYERS
Strengthening Child Protective Services	104
An Ombudsman for Abused and Neglected Children?	106
An Inspector General for Child Protective Services?	106
Responding to the Literature of the Backlash	108
Changes in Confidentiality Laws	109
Should the Public Be Invited Into CPS so Citizens Get a More Accurate Picture of CPS Work?	110
Professionals Who Exceed the Limits of Current Knowledge	110
More Effective Lobbying	110
References	111
Index	121
About the Authors	123